A. G. EALY, 46, LITTLESTOWN, DIES SUDDENLY

A. G. Ealy, 46, vice president of the Litlestown Hardware and Foundry Company and one of the community's best known citizens, died very suddenly at 3:45 o'clock Tuesday afternoon while he was in the aluminum department of the foundry in the course of regular duties.

Dr. C. G. Crist, Adams County coroner, was called and issued a certificate attributing death to coronary thrombosis.

Mr. Ealy, an active member and past president of the Littlestown Rotary Club, was to have served as master of ceremonies at the club's annual Christmas party Tuesday evening.

NAVY WAR VETERAN

He was a son of Mrs. Laura Tucker Ealy, Vincennes, Ind., and the late Rev. Charles E. Ealy. He was graduated from the Vincennes High School and from Battle Creek College, Battle Creek, Mich. He was a former athletic coach at the Hanover High School.

He had served as a lieutenant, junior grade, in the U. S. Navy in World War II.

Mr. Ealy was an active member of St. Paul's Lutheran Church and Sunday School in Littlestown. He was president of the Hanover Bronze Foundry, a member of the board of directors of the Hanover Hospital, a member of the Hanover Elks' ladge and a member of the Industrial Management Club of the Hanover area.

SERVICES FRIDAY

He was a former president of the Hanover borough council and was president of the Hadco Aluminum Products Company. He formerly had served as a member of the board of directors of the Adams County Free Library.

Surviving are his wife, Rebecca Snyder Ealy; two daughters, Mrs. Leonard L. Potter, Clemson, S. C., and Linda Ealy, at home. There is one grandson. His mother also survives.

Funeral services Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock at St. Paul's Lutheran Church, Littlestown, where the body will lie in state for one hour before the services. Rev. Lawrence H. Roller, his pastor, will officiate assisted by Rev. David S. Kammerer. Burial in Mt. Carmel Cemetery.

Friends may call at the Little Funeral Home, Littlestown, Thursday evening.

EXCHANGE WILL NOT SPONSOR BASEBALL UNIT

The Exchange Club, at its weekly dinner meeting Tuesday evening in the Lamp Post Tea Room, voted to withdraw sponsorship of a baseball team in the Big Little League. The action followed a recommendation by the board of directors.

It was disclosed that several times near the end of last season, the manager had to forfeit games because the older boys did not show up for games. The club also felt that since a limited number of players are permitted on a team, the funds usually appropriated for the baseball team would better be used to sponsor a project that would include nearly all the youngsters in the Gettysburg area. A "soap box derby" was mentioned.

REJECT PROJECTS PLAN

The club also voted not to buy a $432 movie projector and accessories for the Black Walnut District Boy Scouts. President Crosby Hartzell said there are over 800 Scouts in this district, or 40 per cent of the boys available for scouting. Discussion pertained mostly as to cost. One member said he felt it should be a community project, rather than a club affair.

The resignation of Richard E. Shaffer was accepted. Hartzell appointed himself as chairman of the builder's show in view of the resignation.

After committee reports, Hartzell asked the youth committee to investigate other projects instead of the baseball team sponsorship. 20 members attended the meeting.

Snyder Tuesday and was recommitted to the Adams County jail for sentence court. Smith, who was arrested by state police, had been on probation at the time of arrest.

New Appeal For Xmas Light Fund

Another appeal was made today for donations toward Gettysburg's Christmas light fund.

Ralph K. Will, chairman of the Retail Merchans' Association committee, in charge of the decorations, said $1,800 of the needed $2,500 has been raised.

This marks the second year $2,500 has been sought in order to pay the cost of the new decorations which are expected to last for a number of years. Next year the amount sought will be lower, covering only the cost of putting up and taking down the decorations, plus maintenance costs.

Those who wish to donate should send checks to Retail Merchants Association, Post Office Box 292, Gettysburg.

DAVID JAMES IS PROMOTED TO SERGEANT

David K. James, 359 York St., a resident of Gettysburg for the past 15 years, has been promoted to sergeant by the Pennsylvania State Police.

Elevation of James from corporal to sergeant was announced today by State Police Commissioner Frank G. McCartney along with a number of other promotions and changes.

Sgt. Robert Smith, who served as commander of the Gettysburg sub-station before being named commander of the York sub-station, was appointed to the rank of detective sergeant and assigned to the Harrisburg Headquarters of Troop A.

OTHER PROMOTIONS

Trooper Harold W. Eckenrode, assigned to York, and Trooper Jay C. Jileman, Harrisburg, were promoted to corporal. Corporal Henry C. Herman, Harrisburg, was transferred to the State Police Academy, Hershey.

The promotions and changes are effective Thursday.

Sergeant James, 42, married and the father of four children, has served as a corporal for four years. Most of the last 15 years he has been assigned here with the exception of 2½ years as a corporal at York and 1½ years at Harrisburg. He is a native of Philadelphia.

Active in Cub Scout work with Pack 78 of Gettysburg, he has served various posts with the committee of that organization since its establishment and is currently treasurer of the pack.

Will Discuss Ag Budget On Tuesday

The 1961 budget was discussed at a meeting of the executive committee of the Adams County Extension Association Tuesday evening in the courthouse.

Adams County Farm Agent Frank S. Zettle announced that the annual association meeting will be held Tuesday, January 3, in the West St. bank. The public is invited, he added. Six directors will be elected. Reports of activities during 1960 will be presented.

Dr. William Smith, state 4-H director from Penn State University, will speak on "Family Living" and Wesley Kriebel, program consultant of the assocation, will discuss "Pennsylvania Growth," a program to be activated in February.

SNOW PLOWS KEEP BUSY

Public and parochial schools reopened today after two days of vacation as a result of Sunday's snowstorm and state Highway Department workmen were opening the last of the rural roads on the snow-plowing schedule.

Other plows were engaged in pushing back roadside snow banks to widen the area available to traffic and to get highways in such shape that new snow could be handled if it falls before the present accumulation has melted.

Eight trucks were scattering rock salt and calcium on highways and town streets to remove packed snow and ice that have made travel hazardous since late Sunday morning. Five graders and 22 trucks were plowing snow again today and were expected to continue for several days.

State plows have been in almost continuous operation since Sunday midday. Trucks operated until 3 and 4 o'clock this morning and today the big snow-blower was taken up the Table Rock Rd. to move drifts too big for plows to handle.

The last of the rural roads in the county to be opened were several in the Littlestown section but by this afternoon all of them were passable. Drifting ended Tuesday in most sections and eased the task for the snowplowing crews.

34-STAR FLAG TO FLY FOR CW CENTENNIAL

The 34-star flag will fly in Adams County during the Civil War Centennial period as a result of action taken by the Adams County Civil War Centennial Commission at its meeting Tuesday evening at the courthouse.

The commission voted to order several 34-star flags, the type in use during the Civil War, and will make them available for use throughout the county by local groups for observances in connection with the centennial.

Possibly the first use will be in connection with a planned observance Saturday, April 22, marking the departure of the Independent Blues, first Adams County unit to join the army in Civil War days.

PLAN OBSERVANCE

Under plans outlined Tuesday evening, a committee headed by Col. Corvan Bryan, O. G. MacPherson and Mrs. Roy W. Gifford will arrange a program to be held at Lincoln Square and St. James Lutheran Church re-enacting the events of April 21 and 22, 1861, when the 34-star flag was raised on a pole placed in Lincoln Square and at the courthouse. The Independent Blues were sworn in at a ceremony on the square attended by the Blues and various home guard units of the county, a service was held at S. James Lutheran Church bidding farewell to the troops and the Blues then marched to the Western Maryland Railway depot to leave by train "amidst the roar of cannon and the cheers of the multitude," according to accounts in the local newspaper of the day.

Members of the Sons of Veterans Reserve and the North-South Skirmish Association will be invited to represent the soldiery, while local women's groups will be urged to provide women in costume for the pageantry.

Dean Asquith, Biglerville, was appointed Tuesday night as representative of the commission in

FIND DRIVER GUILTY AFTER COURT APPEAL

Alfred J. Darbrow, Dillsburg R. 1, was found guilty by the Adams County court Tuesday afternoon on a charge of failing to yield half the highway brought as a result of an auto accident June 18 six miles south of Dillsburg on the East Berlin Rd. in Adams County. He was fined $10 and costs.

Darbrow had appealed the charge to the court after it had been placed before a justice of the peace by State Policeman George Studenmoth.

Both sides submitted pictures of the scene to the court Tuesday. The Commonwealth claimed the accident occurred at a spot where debris was found on the highway, which would have placed Darbrow's car over the center of the road. Darbrow showed pictures to contend that the accident occurred where a front bumper of Darbrow's car gouged into the highway and skidmarks showed his car veered sharply off the highway.

SENTENCE DELAYED

Darbrow was the only witness for the defense. The state policeman and Lloyd Trimble, East Berlin R. 1, driver of the other car involved, were the witnesses for the Commonwealth.

Sentence of Bruce N. Funt, York Springs R. 2, on a charge of driving while under the influence was postponed until January when it was reported to court that he is still suffering from injuries suffered in a later automobile accident.

WARNINGS ISSUED

A scheduled hearing of Samuel J. King, Littlestown R. 1, on a summary conviction was postponed until later when another auto code violation charge can

"GOOD WILL" SHARES BEING SOLD AT GHS

The students at the Gettysburg Junior-Senior High School are again purchasing "Good Will Shares" in order to bring a foreign student to the school next year and to help to send one of their fellow students abroad.

At a recent assembly Barclay Collins, Senior High Student Council treasurer; Jack Bucher, Senior Class treasurer, and Sandra Coldsmith, Sophomore Class treasurer, reacquainted the Senior High School students with the foreign-exchange programs sponsored by the American Field Service, the need for a home for next year's student and the need for funds with which to operate the programs. Merial Hartman, treasurer of the Freshman Class; Paul Miller, Eighth Grade treasurer; Judy Thompson, Seventh Grade treasurer, and Kay Newman, Junior High Student Council treasurer, conducted a similar program later for the Junior High School.

Hendrati Insijah, from Indonesia, spoke briefly to each assembly. Maryanna Biesecker, her merican "sister," accompanied her in singing an Indonesian song. James R. Feather, finance chairman for the local AFS committee, assisted by the class treasurers, conducted the pledging program when the students and the faculty pledged nearly $1,000 to support the continuance of the exchange program in the local school.

Loses Wallet And $280, Cash, Checks

Harry Kime, Biglerville R. 1, no doubt lost considerable of his Christmas enthusiasm and interest in Gettysburg Tuesday. He drove into town to do some shopping. After making one purchase on Baltimore St. he walked to Lincoln Square where he made another. Later he left for home. Upon his arrival his brown wallet was missing. He returned to Gettysburg, retraced his steps and made inquiries at the various stores—all in vain.

His loss: $165 in cash and $115 in checks, all of which were endorsed.

Perhaps an "honest" finder will return the wallet and contents. His identity is clearly stated on cards in the wallet.

FORFEITS FINES

The following recently forfeited fines in Westminster on motor code violation charges: Dolores Blum, Taneytown, $11.45, exceeding 50 miles per hour; Ray Hahn, Taneytown, $6.45, following too closely; William McNair, Taneytown, $33.45, exceeding truck weight limit.

TRAVEL GROUP OK'S JAYCEE CW PLAN HERE

Gettysburg Travel Council, meeting Tuesday evening at the Varsity Diner, gave its "full support" to plans of the local Junior Chamber of Commerce to promote restoration of a Civil War atmosphere to the community by a plan of making minor changes to the fronts of stores.

The Junior Chamber had proposed the idea at a recent meeting of various local groups and in the near future will seek to set up a committee to promote the plan.

At the same time the Travel Council praised the Jaycees for their poll of the community to determine local sentiment concerning the street lights in the center of the town. The Travel Council voted to urge borough council to either retain the present light system, painting the standards black and increasing wattage of the bulbs, or installing an 1863 type lamp, "in order to keep the community's atmosphere in the Civil War period."

$100 FOR DECORATIONS

The Travel Council pledged $100 tions put up in the community by a committee from the Retail Merchants.

Plans were also made to have a luncheon meeting at the diner of directors of the Travel Council and the Retail Merchants "to discuss joint interests." A similar session is to be held later with Chamber of Commerce directors.

Mother And Six Of Her 9 Children Perish In Fire

HARRISBURG (AP) — Fire swept through a rural home at nearby Wertzville early today, killing a mother and six of her nine children.

The father and two other children were injured and taken to Harrisburg Hospital. Another child escaped the flames and stayed with neighbors.

The fire was brought under control by 9 a.m. and all seven of the victims removed.

The family was identified by Hamden Twp. fire Chief Charles J. Shank Jr. as that of Mr. and Mrs. Nef Walker, both 36.

In addition to Mrs. Walker the children killed by the blaze were:

One son, Jimmy, 9, and five daughters, Mary, 13; Helen, 10; Dianne, 5; Louise, 3, and Irene, 1.

With Walker in Harrisburg Hospital were his sons Robert, 8, and Dwayne, 5. The younger child was reported in unsatisfactory condition with burns. Walker and Robe were in satisfactory condition, suffering smoke inhalation and minor burns.

The ninth child, Martha, 12, and a family boarder, Harold Cramer, 17, were with neighbors and were not injured in the blaze.

STOVE EXPLODED

Shank theorized that a stove on the first floor of the two-story frame house may have exploded, causing the fire.

He asked the state fire marshall's office to investigate.

Wallance B. Troutman, West Enola fire chief, said his company was called and arrived at the scene at 5:10 a.m., but the fire "was too far gone then to do anything about."

The home burned to the ground.

Firefighters were hampered by near-zero temperatures. However, none of the companies reported any difficulty reaching the burning home because of icy conditions.

The house was located a half mile north of Wertzville, Cumberland County, just a few miles west of Harrisburg.

Family Is Made Homeless By Blaze

Fire almost destroyed the residence of Merle Keilholtz, Emmitsburg R. D., late Tuesday afternoon. The blaze broke out in a wall in the rear of a fireplace and spread to the second floor.

The Vigilant Fire Co., Emmitsburg, was called and some of the firemen remained at the scene until 10 p.m. The Thurmont Fire Company was also summoned. Several firemen remained all night to guard against a break out of the blaze.

Firemen were called by Miss Sandra Keilholtz, a daughter, who told them that because of the snowstorm they would have to detour five miles in the rear of Mt. St. Mary's college.

Chief John Hollinger said the house was formerly a log building which had been weatherboarded and to which had been added an addition.

The Keilhotzes are homeless. Their barn was destroyed by fire several years ago.

STREETS TO BE CLEAR OF SNOW THIS EVENING

Borough snow removal operations and plowing is expected to be completed this evening, according to borough engine Leroy H. Winebrenner. The maintenance men started work Sunday midnight and the crew of 12 worked round the clock to clear up the streets.

Winebrenner said that by 8 a.m. Monday morning Lincoln Square and one side of Baltimore St. had been cleared of snow. Chambersburg St. was cleared Monday. After York and Carlisle Sts. were finished only the minor traffic areas will have to cleared.

The engineer cautioned people not to shovel snow into the streets after they have been cleared off. He said a borough ordinance prohibits the shoveling of snow into public roads. He said snow should be piled along the curb or hauled away.

Winebrenner said he had the snow cleared from in front of the court house at 11 a.m. Monday and after noon, prisoners had shoveled snow from the sidewalks into the streets, necesitating another removal from that area.

Winebrenner added that the grader will go over the streets either late this evening or early tomorrow to do "mop up" operations.

POLICIES ON ADMISSION TO COUNTY HOME ARE ADOPTED

The Adams County commissioners, meeting at the courthouse this morning, adopted a formal policy for admission to the county home and made plans for duplication of the statement for distribution to physicians, hospitals and others who frequently give advice to persons regarding possible county home admission.

The formal policy follows largely what has been an unwritten policy for years, but spells out details for the first time in some instances. The plan was approved by the county home advisory committee.

The formal statement notes that one of the requirements for eligibility for county home residence is that "current income, including contributions by legally responsible relatives, must be insufficient to purchase similar type care in a private or commercial facility.

CONSIDER FOSTER HOMES

"The liquid assets (of the person) must be insufficient, if converted to cash, to purchase care in a private home for longer than four months." Since anyone entering the home may earmark $300 for burial purposes, that amount is excluded from the calculation of the liquid assets of the prospective county home guest. The rules also state that the person wishing to enter the home must own no real estate "other than the domicile." In addition, residents of the home may retain $3 a month for "incidentals" out of income they receive.

The new rules state that no one will be admitted without an investigation of the circumstances at the current home of the person. That investigation program is to be worked out by the county home superintendent.

In line with discussion on the county home requirements, the commissioners also are considering the possibility of setting up foster home care. Attempts are being made to determine the pos-

Rep. Poage Considered For Cabinet

WASHINGTON (AP) — President-elect John F. Kennedy was quoted as saying today he is considering appointing Rep. W. R. Poage, D-Tex., as secretary of agriculture.

Rep. Albert Thomas, D-Tex., said Kennedy told him that during a conference at the president-elect's home here.

This did not seem to rule out the possibility that several others who have been mentioned for the agriculture post are also still being considered.

BEING CONSIDERED

Some of Kennedy's campaign remarks have been interpreted as a promise the post would go to a Midwesterner.

Standing in front of the president-elect's Georgetown home, Thomas told newsmen in response to a question that they had discussed possibilities for secretary of agriculture.

"I told him we have got a good candidate in Texas, and he said he is giving him consideration," Thomas said.

MEETS HODGES

The president-elect's morning callers included several other Congress members and his Secretary of Commerce-designate, Gov. Luther Hodges of North Carolina.

Hodges met with Kennedy for about 30 minutes at the president-elect's Georgetown home. The governor was the first of several callers on Kennedy's calendar for today.

Hodges pictured Kennedy as "pleasant as always, and on the ball as always."

NAMES FORD EXECUTIVE

He added that he and Kennedy talked over several men Hodges has in mind for under secretary of commerce, and for positions in the field of international trade.

The governor said no conclusions were reached regarding

EAST DIGGING OUT OF WORST AUTUMN STORM

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Slowly, painfully, the Eastern United States, still gripped by an unrelenting arctic cold, dug itself out Wednesday from the worst autumn storm in its history. As it did so, a new storm hit New Mexico and spread across the Southwest.

The toll of storm-related deaths passed 220, and the cost in lost business and in the expense of snow removal ran into millions of dollars.

The cold, which ranged into the below-zero regions in some areas, had a cruel companion: the wind. It stung the faces of motorists trying to dig out from streets still littered with abandoned vehicles; it blew the snow's fine powder into electric-train engines and stalled motors, and it covered ordinary objects with drifting snow and turned them into strange, white shapes.

WARM IN MOSCOW

As millions chopped at ice and shoveled snow, it was no comfort to read that in Moscow, normally one of the icebox cities of the world, the citizens were complaining because unseasonable warmth had ruined the usual skating and skiing.

Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York ordered out the State National Guard to help clear abandoned vehicles from New York City's snow-clogged streets.

In the Southwest up to 12 inches of snow fell in the high mountains of New Mexico, and snow was general in a belt across West Texas from the Panhandle to the Big Bend country. In the Flatlands the fall was generally six inches or less and in some places was mixed with sleet and rain. The big Eastern storm had started in the Southwest.

On the Eastern seaboard no relief from the subnormal cold was in sight, although some moderation was predicted during today and Thursday.

Transportation improved, although delays on railroads and buses were still expectable. Airports resumed full flight schedules, but delays were probable because some runways had yet to be cleared of snow.

POLICIES ON

sibility of securing foster homes for indigent persons and possible cost in comparison to county home care.

DISCUSS PUBLIC TOILET

Another possibility being considered is some type of home care that can perhaps be handled by a neighbor at small cost to the county. Sometimes, the commissioners said, a person may be capable of staying in his or her own home with only slight assistance on a part-time basis. Without that help, it is necessary for them to go to the county home. If such a program can be worked out and if the foster home plan can be made possible, the county will be able to save money on care of elderly people and at the same time cut down on future needs for expansion of the county home.

Part of the morning session was spent on discussion of plans submitted by Wilbur L. Plank at the commissioners' request for changes in the courthouse for more efficient office space. The plans also contemplate the installation of men's and women's toilet facilities for the general public. Commissioner Charles B. Bender noted public toilets have long been a need in the community "and if can work out a plan to put them in the court house, I am very much in favor of it." The commissioners and Plank recalled that the matter had been under consideration for years by various boards of commissioners and that the town itself has had plans for a public toilet under consideration "for at least 25 years."

The proposed public toilets "couldn't be very large but at least they would be more than is available now," the commissioners noted. Whether the plan can be worked out depends to a large extent on how much the cost will be and what can be worked out for the maintenance and care of the toilets.

DISCUSS HOURS

Also before the commissioners this morning was a discussion on whether the courthouse hours should be changed.

Prothonotary Herbert W. Miller and Clerk of Courts Kenneth W. Johns were among courthouse officials who met with the commissioners this morning. Other meetings are planned or have been held with representatives of the county bar and others on the matter.

The commissioners are proposing the possibility that the court house hours be changed from 8 a.m. to 12 noon and 1 to 4 p.m. The hours suggested are from 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. with the court house open over the noon hour. The commissioners said other counties are keeping the court house open during the noon hour and said such a program will be a "great convenience to those who find it difficult to visit the court house offices at any other hour."

Tankers Collide; 28 Are Missing

ISTANBUL, Turkey (AP)—Two tankers collided and exploded into flames with a shattering roar today in the Bosporus. Twenty-eight crewmen were unaccounted for.

Many sailors saved their lives by jumping from the flaming hulks and swimming ashore. Fifty-eight men, some badly burned, were rescued. Captains of both ships were missing.

The ships were a Greek tanker, the 20,000-ton World Harmony, and a Yugoslav tanker, the 25,000-ton Peter Zoranich.

An empty passenger ship docked nearby, the 9,345-ton Turkish Tarsus, was set afire by the explosion. House windows more than two miles away rattled when the ships went up in flames.

Houses on the nearby shore were evacuated.

Chief Judge Chester H. Rhodes wrote the majority opinion affirming the conviction in the Dauphin County Quarter Sessions Court of Frank J. Petrosky, Roland J. Sell and Charles E. Fait.

Young Farmers Select Officers

Horace H. Waybright, Gettysburg R. 2, was elected president of the Gettysburg Young Farmers Association at its meeting Tuesday evening at the local high school. He succeeds Arthur Weaver Jr.

Lyndale Brandon was elected vice president; Wilbur Danner, secretary; Walter Hammond, treasurer; Richard Waybright, public relations officer, and John Eyler and William Eckert, directors.

The meeting was devoted to study of samples of hay and silage provided by members. A committee of members judged the hay and silage after which Elmer Schriver, agricultural education teacher at the high school, led a discussion on use of recommended varieties of high quality seeds, proper liming and fertilization, early harvesting and insect control to develop high quality hays.

President-elect Waybright, as delegate from the local group to the state Young Farmers convention, gave a report on that meeting.

OPPOSING PARDON FOR MURDERESS

PETERSBURG, Ind. (AP)—The mother of a Marine private killed in a robbery four years ago said today she will oppose a pardon for the woman convicted of the slaying.

Mrs. Mavis Kirk of Petersburg said she and her husband, Olvis, were notified by Illinois prison authorities Tuesday that Trudy Jo Baker, 20, has applied for a governor's pardon.

Mrs. Kirk said she and her husband, a coal field driller, would appear before the Illinois pardon board next month and ask that Mrs. Baker's plea for freedom be denied.

"IT'S TERRIBLE"

"I think its terrible," Mrs. Kirk told the Associated Press. "We didn't want the death penalty for her but I don't think it's right that she should be released after serving only two years. She is as guilty as her husband."

The body of Larry Kirk, 21, was found Dec. 22, 1956, in a field northeast of Centralia, Ill.

Mrs. Baker and her husband, Robert, told authorities they shot Kirk to death after robbing him of $11 and dumped his body in the field. They said they picked up the youth as he hitchhiked along U.S. 50 in southern Illinois.

HAD ESCAPED

The Bakers were convicted in 1958 of murdering Kirk. Baker, of Wormsleyburg, Pa., was sentenced to 99 years and Mrs. Baker to 30 years. Baker is in the state penitentiary at Menard, Mrs. Baker in the women's reformatory at Dwight.

Mrs. Baker escaped from the penitentiary about a year after she was sentenced and was recaptured in Chicago where she had been working as a prostitute.

Under her original sentence, Mrs. Baker would have been eligible for parole after serving 14 years. For her escape she was sentenced to an additional one to 10 years.

WARM AIR TO BRING RELIEF FROM SNOWS

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

An influx of warm air from the southwestern states moved into Pennsylvania today, bringing relief from snow, stinging cold and biting winds which have hung over the state the past three days.

The Weather Bureau said today's high would range from 25 to 30 across the state with the exception of the mountainous areas where the thermometer might dip a little lower.

Forecasters said generally it would be 10 to 15 degrees warmer than Tuesday when highs ranged from 11 to 18.

MORE OPTIMISTIC

In south central and parts of western Pennsylvania the outlook was even more optimistic. Forecasters said the high could reach 35.

The Weather Bureau said it should be around 15 degrees warmer in Philadelphia, Harrisburg and Pittsburgh. Philadelphia's high on Tuesday reached only 17, Harrisburg recorded 18 and Pittsburgh 15.

No appreciable snow fall was forecast for the rest of the week but weather officials reported that some snow flurries could be expected in western Pennsylvania.

WARM TOMORROW

Thursday should be even warmer than today, the Weather Bureau said, particularly in Philadelphia, where a high of near 40 is forecast.

Meanwhile, in the wake of the storm which left 15 inches of snow over Philadelphia and 5 to 12 inchs in other parts of the state, there were these developments.

1. The death toll from the storm stood at 22. Sixteen of the victims suffered fatal heart attacks or died of over exertion while shoveling snow; three were killed in skidding accidents and three froze to death.

MOST SCHOOLS OPEN

2. Virtually all schools in the state were open today with the exception of most Philadelphia schools which won't resume classes until Thursday.

3. Steady progress was being made in the clearing of secondary and rural roads. Highway crews were able to get more done since the gusty winds which were piling up huge drifts died down. All main roads were open.

4. The Pennsylvania Railroad had all of its six commuter trains in the Philadelphia area running on time. It reported that there was a 20 per cent increase in passengers Tuesday and that it expected more before the day was over.

UNHAPPY WITH OPERATIONS

5. The Philadelphia Transportation Co. reported that full or partial service has been resumed on half of its surface lines.

6. Officials of Philadelphia, w was the hardest hit by the storm, said they were very unhappy with the way the cleanup operation was handled.

Managing Director Donald C. Wagner blamed the Philadelphia Transportation Co., the city itself and the state for what he said was laxity in acting immediately to remove the snow.

AMOUNTS TO STRIKE

Councilman Emanuel Weinberg said that the shutting down of all surface lines by the PTC when the storm hit hardest Monday "amounts to a strike against the people."

He asked the company to send a representative to a meeting today of the Committee on Transportation and Public Utilities to explore ways of avoiding future delays.

7. The Chamber of Commerce estimated that Monday's business loss in Philadelphia was over $2 million. In efforts to make up for the loss major department stores announced they would remain open Saturday night.

Most Taxes Paid In Biglerville

Biglerville taxpayers are, as usual, doing very well, the county commissioners found this morning when Biglerville Tax Collector John C. Brown appeared for exoneration preparatory to closing his accounts for the year.

Brown was the first tax collector in the county to appear before the commissioners with a list of this year's uncollectible taxes.

The commissioners found from Brown's report that the county will "lose" $23.74 in tax and the institution district will "lose" $11.97 worth of tax. The total of $35.71 was exonerated and Brown was praised for his skill in collecting.

Brown's report showed the reasons for not collecting the taxes; 12 of the persons involved had moved out of Biglerville and three appeared on the tax duplicate twice. Four were not yet 21. One person was unknown in Biglerville. Nine had paid elsewhere—and Brown listed the tax collectors to whom they had paid. Four had died and a total of five were listed by Brown as unable to pay.

BOY, 11, SAVES 2 BROTHERS FROM FLAMES

ONTARIO, Ore. (AP) — Jerry Davis, 11, hero of this eastern Oregon town, was recovering today from severe burns on his face, ears and hands.

Jerry stepped outside for a breath of air Monday night and saw flames shooting out of the upper floor of his home.

He shouted for his mother. While she shepherded four children to safety, he dashed through the flames to an upper bedroom to rescue his 2-year-old brother.

"I didn't want to lose my littlest brother just because I was askeered," Jerry said later from his hospital bed.

RESCUES SECOND BROTHER

Jerry had to swallow his fear once more. When he got outside with 2-year-old Mark Davis, the family discovered Neil, 4, still was inside.

So Jerry braved the flames again, his mother, Mrs. Loren Davis, right behind him. They found the top of the stairs in flames.

Mrs. Davis boosted Jerry, he grabbed a banister beyond the flames, and pulled himself up. He had to leap through flames to reach Neil's bedroom, but he carried the boy back and dropped him into his mother's arms. Then he finally fled to safety.

Neil and Mark suffered only slight burns.

The fire broke out while the father, Loren Davis, was away. Officials said it apparently started from children playing with matches.

BYRD BALKS AT KENNEDY'S TAX CUT PROPOSAL

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (AP)—President-elect John F. Kennedy is going to find Sen. Harry F. Byrd, D-Va., standing uncompromisingly against any shot-in-the-arm tax cut to counter the economic downturn.

Byrd, who heads the Senate Finance Committee which would have to pass on any such reduction, said he believes any action to cut taxes which would result in a budget deficit "would be the worst thing we could do."

The Virginia senator said in an interview he bases this opinion on his study in Europe this fall of the drain on the American gold supply. This problem has perplexed the retiring Eisenhower administration and promises to become one of Kennedy's major headaches when he takes office in January.

"COURTING DISASTER"

"If we go into any deficit financing, it is going to undermine further the already weakened confidence abroad in the dollar," Byrd said. "It would be almost certain to result in a further flight of gold.

"Piling up deficits is no longer merely a matter of adding to our national debt. If we don't protect the position of the dollar in world exchange, we will be courting disaster."

Byrd, who has denounced the platform on which Kennedy was elected and who did not support the Democratic nominee, indicated he believes the gold threat will act as a brake on any large spending increases the president-elect might be tempted to submit to Congress.

SOME FAVOR CUTS

If he accepts the weight of opinion among his advisers, Kennedy is not likely to propose any public works spending program to meet a recession. Most of these advisers think such programs operate too slowly to help in a temporary recession.

Kennedy said during the presidential campaign that a temporary reduction in some taxes would be considered if the business recession he contended was under way then should deepen this winter.

Subsequently several economists told a Senate-House committee designated by the president-elect to survey economic conditions that taxes ought to be cut if unemployment goes beyond six million. Unemployment hit 4,031,000 in November, or 6.3 per cent of the labor force.

DOUGLAS WANTS CUTS

Sen. Paul Douglas, D-Ill., who heads the Senate - House committee, forecast an increase in joblessness in the winter months. He said some sort of selective tax cut might have to be considered.

Douglas has joined Sen. Joseph S. Clark, D-Pa., in suggesting that Byrd ought to step out of the way of the Kennedy legislative program because of his opposition to the party platform and his failure to support the presidential nominee.

Byrd made it clear he would welcome a Senate test on this issue. It could come shortly after the opening of the new Congress. Any member could challenge and get a showdown vote on Byrd's tenure as finance chairman in the usually routine election by the Senate of its committee heads.

Pa. Weather Forecasts In October Rated As 85.2 Per Cent Correct

Pennsylvania weather forecasts during October were correct 85.2 per cent of the time, according to a survey conducted across the state in that month by the U. S. Weather Bureau.

The Gettysburg Times weather station participated in the survey and reported 96.7 per cent of the daily forecasts were correct with only one "bust" and 30 "hits" in the 31-day period.

Across the state the forecasters' record ranged from a perfect mark of 31 "hits" to as many as 16 "busts" for the month.

There were 148 weather observers across the state participating in teh survey and they verified 4,471 forecasts with 3,811 "hits" and 660 "busts," giving a statewide percentage of 85.2.

Reports of the results of the survey were issued by V. D. Steves, supervising climatologist for the Weather Records Processing Center at Chattanooga, Tenn., where Pennsylvania weather data is sent for processing and recording. Each weather station sends monthly written reports to Chattanooga while some observation points send reports daily or several times daily.

In his report on the result of the survey, accompanied by a message of thanks to cooperating observers, Mr. Stevens wrote:

"There was some comment that October is an easy month to forecast and we should have picked another month. Earlier verification projects had been conducted in other seasons and this one was done in October to round out the picture. There was considerable variation in judgment, for verification ranged from 31 'hits' to as many as 16 'busts.' The last previous verification for Pennsylvania was conducted in June, 1955, when 38 participants rated the forecasts as 90.4 per cent right."

Royalty, Jewels Combine At King Baudouin's Gala Ball Tuesday In Brussels

BRUSSELS, Belgium (AP) — Europe's royalty, flashing jewelry worth millions and attended by a small army of servants, turned back history Tuesday night at bachelor King Baudouin's gala pre-wedding ball.

Seldom since bygone days when royalty was supreme have so many titles and so much jewelry been gathered in one place.

Five kings, four queens, 46 princes and princesses, 25 counts and countesses and dozens of lesser titled bluebloods watched as the happy Belgian king danced across the palace ballroom with his fiancee, Dona Fabiola de Mora Y Aragon, whom he marries Thursday.

1,200 GUESTS

Beautifully gowned women among the 1,200 guests seemed to vie with one another as to who could put on the most diamonds, emeralds and pearls.

One royal security officer, wearing evening dress and mingling with the guests, said he never had seen so many costly gems in years of guarding royal heirlooms.

Dona Fabiola, the star of the ball which lasted into the early morning, wore a diamond and emerald tiara — a present from her native Spain.

A state banquet for 230 special guests also featured reminders of the past. One course was young wild boar smothered in chestnut sauce, the ancient dish of kings.

BLESSING IN TOAST

Ex-King Leopold gave his parental blessing in a toast: "By her tender presence at your side," he told his son, "Fabiola will be your most precious support."

Those who raised their glasses to this included Princess Margaret, representing her sister, Queen Elizabeth II of Britain.

Another guest was Christian A. Herter, U. S. secretary of state — President Eisenhower's representative at the ball.

After the civil ceremony in the palace, King Baudouin and his bride will go to the seven-centuries-old Collegiate Church of Saints Michel and Gudule. It will be the first time the wedding of a reigning Belgian king has been celebrated in the church.

TRAVEL GROUP

hour meeting was devoted to discussion of folders and publications to be distributed nationally to promote visitation to Gettysburg. It was decided to set aside $500 to pay Gettysburg's share of a regional folder put out by York, Lancaster, Hershey, Carlisle and Gettysburg.

President Kenneth Dick turned over to a committee headed by William Warren and Marshall Tuckey a problem of publications posed during the lengthy discussion. During the year the Travel Council receives hundreds of inquiries by groups asking about specific accommodations, meals, etc., for certain sized groups at specified rates. the question put to the committee was whether some sort of printed matter can be developed which will list the Travel Council members, the sixe of accommodations or facilities they can offer, the general price range, etc. and the type of tourist groups they seek, so the brochures can be mailed in response to the requests and the groups interested could then contact the business places.

A total of 1,788,392 people visited the American Museum of Natural History in New York City during the fiscal year that ended last June 30.

BATTLE FOR LAOS CAPITAL

WASHINGTON (AP)—Pro- and anti-Communist forces fought today for the center of the Laotian capital, Vientiane.

The story of a Communist drive into the capital and a counter-attack by pro-Western forces reached Washington in fragmentary dispatches filed by American correspondents through U.S. State Department channels to the Voice of America. Normal communications were out.

A midmorning dispatch said the struggle for Vientiane continued as soldiers loyal to Gen. Phoumi Nosavan advanced slowly from the northern section of the city. Earlier, pro-Communist forces commanded by Capt. Kong Le had occupied the center of the capital.

The dispatch said:

"A struggle for Vientiane continued Wednesday as pro-Communist and anti-Communist forces fought for control of the city's center.

"During the morning, troops loyal to Gen. Phoumi Nosavan advanced slowly from the northern section of the city. The mixed force of paratroopers and pro-Communist Pathet Lao commanded by Capt. Kong Le maintained a stiff resistance."

Six persons in Adams County are eligible for federal income tax refunds for 1959.

They are among 1,650 taxpayers in the 23-county Philadelphia district of the Internal Revenue Service due refunds.

A perennial leader in all monetary efforts at the school, Room 107, under the leadership of J. Melchoir Sheads, pledged the greatest amount and so far has paid the most. Mr. Shead's Junior homeroom pledged to purchase 306 shares at the cost of 25 cents a share. To date they have paid for 242 shares. Giving 107 competition for the lead, Room 226, a Freshman homeroom, has paid 203 of its 262 pledged shares. Mr. Feather is the home room teacher.

After only one week of collections, more than $400 in "Good Will" funds has been received. The committee is hopeful of raising the bulk of the $1,250 needed to finance the local programs through the volunteer contributions of the students, teachers and their friends. Although no general solicitation is made some organizations and interested individuals have contributed toward this cause in the past. Those desiring to do so this year may contact Mr. Feather at the high school for information.

Today's Talk

KEEP YOUR TEMPER

The other day I stood on the corner of a busy New York City intersection and watched, for a time, a policeman handling the traffic.

Every once in a while he'd lose his temper and take it out on some driver or pedestrian who he said, "didn't use their head." Well, I was a witness to the fact that they didn't. But I didn't like to see this officer lose his temper! He could have used it for something more important.

I have no idea why tempers were invented. Unless it was that we might learn the shortest method whereby they might be controlled.

It is significant that the more temper you give away, the more you accumulate. So it would appear that the wisest way of handling your temper is to keep it as far away from other people as possible. And don't humor it.

What's a temper for, then? To let alone!

A temper must be a good thing, or we all would not have one. But usage never improves it. As we all know.

Then there is the difference between "righteous wrath" and a fiery temper. The former, under the proper circumstance, exhibits the sterling stuff that most good humans possess. The latter pictures the worst of a man or woman and shows each up at his, or her, weakest.

What's a temper for? To KEEP!

You rarely see an important or a useful man lose his temper. You see, he needs it. He uses it to make him strong. To make him understand the failings in other people, and to teach him that he is very fallible.

Don't let anybody take your temper from you!

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "A Day Brings Chances"

Just Folks

THE COMMON CARES

Laughter and song and smiles
And joy when the cares are small.
A song for the dreary miles.
A dance when the shadows fall.
Few are the griefs we meet
That with us forever stay,
For most of this life is sweet,
And much of the work is play.

Laughter, and love and mirth,
And a kiss when the day is done;
Few of our griefs are worth
Eyes shut to the setting sun.
Tears for the heart-felt woe,
But smiles for the common care;
This is the way to go,
This is the way to dare.

SAYS DAILY BATHS HELP SKIN DRYNESS

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Defenses against virus diseases and a question on anemia are among the week's medical notes:

DRY SKIN TREATMENT

A daily bath in water containing a little oil reduced annoying dryness of skin in 90 per cent of patients, a physician reports.

Their skin became softer and smoother, and patients reported benefits in such problems as aged skin, burn scars, and skin inflammations. The bath is not a cure, and dryness reappears if the bathing is stopped. But Dr. Gustav Weissberg thinks it was more beneficial in relieving skin troubles than ointments, creams and lotions.

VIRUS DISEASE DEFENSES

Researchers have found three types of chemicals which prevent viruses from multiplying without hurting normal cells.

Future studies will show whether these or related substances can be useful in preventing or treating human virus diseases, which include the common cold, flu, polio, and smallpox, says Dr. Igor Tamm of the Rockefeller Institute.

The three virus inhibitors are a synthetic chemical nicknamed HBB, a mold product known as helenine, and substances produced by virus action and known as interferons. Each protects cells in test tubes against viral damage and shows some protective activity in experimental virus infections in animals, he adds.

ANEMIA AND VITAMINS

Proposition: "Anemia is usually caused by vitamin deficiencies."

Wrong, very wrong, says Dr. Richard W. Vilter of the University of Cincinnati.

Most Americans get enough vitamins in their daily food, and not more than four per cent of anemia in this country is due to vitamin deficiency, he reports. Some 18 per cent of cases are due to iron deficiency from chronic loss of blood and the rest to causes not connected with the diet.

Anxiety is a common cause of insomnia. Tranquilizers can relieve anxiety.

Reasoning that a combination of a tranquilizer and a barbiturate sleeping pill might make it easier to get to sleep, Dr. Wesley W. Bare of Philadelphia tested such a combination on a group of elderly patients.

The combination permitted using less customary amounts of the barbiturate, he said, and worked better than the sleeping pill alone. And patients reported fewer hangovers the next morning from the sleeping drug.

Says Lehigh Train Cost Is Too Great

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Lehigh Valley Railroad says the cost of continuing passenger service is too great and it could have a damaging effect on the system but a Pennsylvania group claims the service is vitally needed.

In a brief filed with the Interstate Commerce Commission Tuday, Lehigh said a "complete breakdown of carrier rail service" will almost certainly follow if the government compels it to keep viding passenger service.

This would mean "serious damage to the public good and loss to thousands of security holders," the railroad said in a brief written to support a request to drop all remaining passenger operations.

The railroad claims passenger operations are running up big deficits.

But in another brief, opposing discontinuance, the Cooperative Legislative Committee of the Railroad Brotherhoods in the state of Pennsylvania claimed Lehigh had been averaging revenues per train mile of $5 since an increase in passenger fares. The Pennsylvania group described this as a comparatively high average revenue for passenger service.

Computations used by Lehigh in claiming losses were challenged the brotherhoods.

LISTS 5 BASIC MARKS OF GOOD GOVERNMENTS

ELIZABETHTOWN, Pa. (AP)—Gov. Lawrence today outlined his five basic requirements for good government for the benefit of an Elizabethtown State College Student audience.

These five requirements, the governor said in his prepared address, are:

"First, we must look upon each state administration as a part of the continuing pattern of self-government. Each action we take and each decision we make, therefore, must be arrived at in the light of its over-all effect on the Commonwealth.

MUST REVISE ATTITUDES

"Second, once the voters have made a decision, we must do all that we can to lay aside the axes of infighting and petty partisanship and act in the interests of all our people.

"Third, we must revise our own internal attitudes toward both politics and governments service.

"Fourth, we must recognize that only a healthy society in a strong economy can hope to meet the public needs of our time.

"And fifth, if we are truly interested in better government we will accept our obligations to be better citizens."

Good politics, the governor said, is the foundation for good government:

"If you are to approach the idea of good government honestly, you must first acknowledge that government — whether it is good or bad — depends upon the actions of those who are interested enough to become directly involved in its activities.

"Good government, in other words, depends upon good politicians."

Lawrence was invited to speak at a "Better Government Program" at the college.

HUGH O'BRIAN FINDS SOME TV BENEFITS

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP TV-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — There is, concededly, inevitable monotony in playing the same role year after year, no matter how successful the actor's vehicle.

"But there are certain definite compensations, and they aren't all money," says Hugh O'Brian, now playing his sixth season as ABC's Wyatt Earp.

O'Brian, cast and production crew work like dogs for five or six months, turning out a full year's supply of the Westerns at the rate of two a week.

EARP ABOUT DONE

"I keep my nose to the grindstone for that time," said O'Brian, "but after they are finished I have six or seven months of the year to do a whole range of things I'm interested in."

"Wyatt Earp" will be finished for this season, as far as O'Brian is concerned, on Jan. 6. During the period after that he will be free to take on—preferably non-Western—other acting jobs, personal appearance dates, even to travel and do nothing.

O'Brian took advantage of a short break in his tight shooting schedule to fly to New York, primarily to make arrangements with the owners of the stage play, "Destry Rides Again" for rights to convert the hit into a two-hour TV special. O'Brian played Destry for a week on Broadway last season, and hopes to be in the TV special next year sometime.

CBS FORMS COMMITTEE

CBS, unhappy at the way its news and public affairs department has been dropping behind NBC in terms of audience popularity, has reacted to trouble in classic American style: formed a committee. This one, composed of the network's very tip-top executives, will make policy about what news and public affairs shows get to the air.

Meanwhile, in an effort to recapture some of the dial turners who defected to Huntley-Brinkley, there may be some drastic shiftings among the on-camera personnel.

The network is busily revising and juggling shows on its Thursday night schedule. "Person to Person," long on CBS' invalid list, will finally succumb to ratings trouble after the Dec. 22 show and the "June Allyson Show" will be moved into the Monday night 10:30-11 p.m. spot. That leaves a Thursday night 10-11 free to be filled alternately by "CBS Reports" and "Face the Nation."

To get at milkweed nectar, an insect must become entangled in sticky, heavy masses of pollen. To leave, it must be strong enough to pull free and carry a sizable load of pollen to the stigma of the next flower visited.

Railroad Seeks To Cut Rail Service

TRENTON, N. J. (AP) — The Pennsylvania-Reading Seashore Line says it no longer can afford to provide passenger service.

A group of railroad executives and State Public Utility Commissioner D. Lane Powers braved the snow-clogged roads Tuesday for another in a series of hearings on the line's application to discontinue passenger service.

The railroad operates 42 passenger trains from Philadelphia and Camden to Jersey shore communities. It asked the PUC Oct. 11 for permission to abandon all passenger service.

Seven witnesses, all railroad officials, testified Tuesday the testimony stuck to one theme—the line's alleged inability to carry passenger losses.

70 IN STATE MARK 100TH BIRTHDAYS

By JACK LYNCH

HARRISBURG (AP) — No less than 70 Pennsylvanians, perhaps more, celebrated their 100th birthdays in 1960.

That number was reported by rlotives, friends and doctors to the Pennsylvania Medical Society which has been honoring centenarians since it observed its own 100th birthday in 1948.

The society isn't sure how many persons joined the exclusive century club this year or how many 100-years-plus members are still living. But in the last 12 years it has handed out a total of 561 plaques "in recognition of those whose life span exemplifies healthful living."

56 ARE WOMEN

It might interest men to know that 56 of the new centenarians were women, following exactly the 4 to 1 ratio in favor of women established since the society began keeping records.

No one is quite sure why many more women than men reach 100, except that women have a longer life span.

But men searching for the secret to long life probably won't find the answer in the longevity formulas given by the new centenarians. They're as numerous as the oldsters themselves.

SENSE OF HUMOR

"People who understand how to love, not abuse, nature will live longer," said Mrs. Sarah Kline of Scranton on her 100th birthday last April 7.

Mrs. Emma Hoag of Cambridge Springs keeps in shape and alert by picking strawberries, reading and watching television.

Another television fan is John Zewe of Braddock, who likes westerns, an occasional beer and chicken. He likes to quip to his doctor:

"See you in five years. The last thing I'm going to do is die."

Zewe's sense of humor is by no means unusual.

When an official went to the home of Mrs. Fannie Hibbert in Lemoyne, near Harrisburg, to honor her on her 100th birthday, she lamented:

"Married you are, eh? Then there's no hope for this poor old widow, is there? And I though you were a young man come calling on me."

Dr. Lindsey S. McNeely of Kirby Greene County, acknowledged the oldest practicing physician in the United States, was attending patients almost up to the day of his death Oct. 22—two weeks before his 100th birthday.

Philadelphia County led the state with 15 new centenarians reported this year. Others were:

Lackawanna 6, Westmoreland 4, Allegheny, Dauphin, Jefferson and York, 3 each: Butler, Columbia, Crawford, Cumberland, Erie, Indiana, Lancaster, Mifflin, Juniata, Montgomery, 2 each; and 1 each from Berks, Bradford, Chester, Greene, Huntingdon, Luzerne, McKean, Monroe, Northumberland, Potter, Susquehanna, Tioga, Warren, Washington, Wayne counties.

LIST SUSPENSIONS

HARRISBURG (AP)—The State Liquor Control Board Tuesday suspended the following licenses for the reasons it cited:

Effective Jan. 4:

Schuylkill — Veterans home of Tamaqua, Pennsylvania, Tamaqua, 20 days; maintained gambling devices.

JOHN C. THOMAS DIES OF CANCER

APPLE VALLEY, Calif. (AP)—Death caused by cancer has silenced the deep, rich voice of baritone John Charles Thomas, 68, one of America's most beloved singers.

The barrel-chested star of opera, concert stage and radio died at his home Tuesday. Ill for months with intestinal cancer, the singer had spent his last days in a coma.

Although still widely sought for concert appearances, Thomas retired from the circuit in 1953. Since 1954 he and his wife, Dorothy, had lived in this desert community northeast of Los Angeles.

His big, booming voice became familiar to millions between 1942 and 1947 when he sang regularly over the National Broadcasting Co. radio network. He habitually signed off his program with the words, "Good night, mother"—a reference to his singer mother, Anna Dorothea Schnabel Thomas.

RAMS HOPE TO UPSET PACKER GROUND GAME

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The Green Bay Packers have one of the soundest ground games in the National Football League, but the Los Angeles Rams hope to upset them here Saturday and scramble the Western Conference race.

If the Packers win they are divisional champions and face the Philadelphia Eagles in the NFL playoff. If they lose there will have to be a playoff among the Baltimore Colts, San Francisco 49ers, Detroit Lions and Green Bay.

Green Bay leads the parade now with a 7-4 record but Baltimore, San Francisco and Detroit all are 6-5. Baltimore faces San Francisco Sunday and Chicago is at Detroit.

BETTER IN MUD

Green Bay was better in the mud than San Francisco last Sunday, but the Rams upset Baltimore, playing superlative defensive football.

"We're getting our defense set for the Packers," said Line Coach Don Paul. "Jim Davis and I figure on using somewhat the same defense we employed against Baltimore — lots of hard tackling and a hard charge."

Head Coach Bob Waterfield is pessimistic about the Green Bay game. He says quarterback Frank Ryan, ends Del Shofner and Gene Brito and tackle Lou Michaels are injured and that the physical condition of the team is the "worst it has been all year."

"LEO, THE LIP" SEEKING JOB

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Leo Durocher says he never was offered a job as manager of Los Angeles' new American League club and that he believes there may be a conspiracy among owners to keep him out of baseball.

"I'm not too much concerned with losing the Los Angeles job as with the general pattern," Durocher told Melvin Durslag of the Examiner Tuesday. "Somebody has put in a knock for me and I don't seem to be wanted.

"They may think I'm too controversial. I have never weighed my words. A guy like me makes a lot of enemies. When things were going good with me, I probably stepped on a lot of toes without even knowing it. These birds may be the ones now giving me the knock.

"I can take the knocks but I can't take a blackball when I'm trying to find a job."

Durocher, 55, said that reports he and the Angels negotiated for the managerial job are untrue.

"They were just saying that to spare me the embarrassment, in print, of turning me down cold," said Leo. "They knew I wanted to come back to baseball. The Los Angeles team could have offered me any decent deal and I would have taken it."

York Suburban Meets Warriors Here Tonight

Scholastic basketball gets underway here tonight when two unbeaten teams, Gettysburg and York Suburban, meet on the high school floor, the junior varsity game starting at 6:45.

Coach George Forney's Warriors opened their season with a victory over West York while York Suburban triumphed over York Catholic in its lone encounter. Suburban, with good height and speed, has won its last nine straight, eight at the end of last season.

Mechanicsburg and Biglerville will meet tonight at Biglerville while New Oxford plays at South Western.

ST. FRANCIS CAGERS OPEN PLAY TONIGHT

The St. Francis Xavier School basketball teams will open their season here tonight against St. Joseph's of Hanover.

At 7 o'clock the Fifth and Sixth Grade teams will collide while the second game will pit the Seventh and Eighth Grade squads against each other.

St. Francis entire varsity squad of last year was lost via graduation but this year's outfit has come along fine and should be able to give its opponents good battles.

Coach Calvin Lovett has announced the following varsity starting lineup for tonight as follows: Charles Abell and Phil Johnson, forwards; John Keller, center, and Ron Redding and Dave Knox, guards. Reservists will be Ron Bourdeau, Tom Sneeringer, Joe Abell, Dave Simpson and Nich Schriver.

On Saturday St. Francis will travel to Westminster to meet Sacred Heart of Glyndon, Md.

Games for the coming season will be with teams from Hanover, Waynesboro, York, Carlisle and Camp Hill.

SPRING GROVE DROPS EAGLES

Bermudian Springs (1-3) dropped its third straight basketball decision Tuesday evening when it bowed at Spring Grove 75-39.

The Eagles dropped behind 17-7 in the opening frame and were outscored in each successive periods by substantial margins. At half time the score was 35-18.

Bill Inskip and Craig Hoke were the top point-men for the Eagles with 13 and 11 points, respectively. The Rockets had four lads in double figures with Trimmer leading the group with a 21-point output.

In the premliminary game the winless Bermudian Jayvees were completely smothered 62-9 for their fourth straight reverse.

CELTICS LOSE SECOND IN ROW

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Boston Celtics, who have been a power in the National Basketball Association Since 1956-57, may not be coming apart at the seams.

But the world champions lost their second straight game to the lowly New York Knickerbockers Tuesday night 117-115, their fifth defeat in the last seven games.

It came in the final seconds when the Knicks' player-coach Carl Braun heaved a long pass to set up the winning goal.

Boston now is in second place in the NBA's Eastern Division, 1½ games behind Philadelphia.

It was the second game of a Madison Square Garden doubleheader, with the Syracuse Nationals hanging on to whip the Cincinnati Royals 107-105 in the opener.

Syracuse now has won eight of its last 10 games, and remains in third place 5½ games behind the Philadelphia Warriors, who also put on a fast finish at College Park, Md., to beat the Detroit Pistons 110-108.

A-F CIRCUIT WILL START ON THURSDAY

Opening games in the 10-school Adams-Franklin Scholastic Basketball League are scheduled for this week.

Getting the jump on the other schools who will wait until Friday evening for their plunge into the league schedule will be Fairfield and Scotland who will clash on the Cadets' floor Thursday evening.

Friday's games include Bermudian Springs at Littlestown, Fannett-Metal at New Oxford, Greencastle at Quincy, and St. Thomas at James Buchanan.

The first round of games will end on January 24 with the second round starting January 27.

Again this season the league will be split into two divisions, the Adams Division and the Franklin Division.

Adams Division teams include Littlestown, Bermudian, Fairfield and New Oxford while the Franklin organization is composed of Scotland, Fannett-Metal, Greencastle, Quincy, St. Thomas and James Buchanan.

Last year Littlestown copped the Adams title but lost in the playoff for the league title to Greencastle, Franklin champions.

NEW SENATORS AND L.A. PICK TEAMS TODAY

BOSTON (AP)—The new Washington Senators selected Bobby Shantz, Gene Woodling, Dick Donovan, Willie Tasby and Dale Long among the 28-men picked today from other American League teams. The new Los Angeles team picked Ted Kluszewski, Bob Cerv, Ned Garver, Eddie Yost and Ken Aspromonte.

Each of the two new clubs in the 10-team league picked the required 28 players at $75,000 each for a total of $2,100,000. Each of the "old" teams lost seven players for $525,000.

Los Angeles had first choice. The selections were made by categories. The 10 pitchers were taken first, then two catchers, six infielders and four outfielders. After that the remaining six could play any position.

Taylor Has Chance To Unseat J. Brown

NEW YORK (AP)—Jim Taylor, Green Bay's crunching fullback, now rates a solid chance to win the National Football League ground-gaining title — something that has belonged to Cleveland's Jimmy Brown since he entered the league four seasons ago.

Taylor has rolled up 1,059 yards in helping bring the Packers to the brink of their first Western Division title since 1944. This is only 8 behind Brown, and each has a game to play.

But Brown must face the New York Giants this week, the league's stingiest team against the rush, while Taylor faces Los Angeles Saturday afternoon.

Cleveland's Milt Plum still leads the league's passers with a 62.9 percentage, is first in average gain with 9.53 and in percentage of interceptions with .05, having had only one pilfered all year.

CECIL SHORTS STOPS MARTINEZ

CLEVELAND (AP) — At 22, Cecil Shorts is a young man in a hurry to reach two objectives he sets for himself: the world welterweight boxing crown and the big money purses available only at the top.

The Cleveland youth took a long stride toward those objectives Tuesday night by stopping Vince Martinez, Miami Beach, Fla., at 2:46 of the fourth round in their scheduled 10. He knocked the 31-year-old Martinez, a 6-5 favorite, down four times in that fourth round before the referee ended it.

"Shorts is ready for any of them," exulted the Cleveland scrapper's manager, Frank Ruskay, in the dressing room. "Don't forget he's already beaten Benny Paret, the champion." That was two bouts before Paret won the title.

HUNTERS HAVE RARE EXCUSES ON FIRST DAY

Uncommon happenings add color to every hunting season. The following occurred in Pennsylvania on the first day of the 1960 antlered deer season:

A deer hunter killed a bear "in self defense," he said, though the bear was traveling diagonally away from the man at the time he shot it.

On the opener a 60-year-old Lewistown man told a game protector the antlered deer he killed that day was the 42nd buck he had bagged.

The "blue bird" weather on December 5 caused many hunters to shed wool clothing and, after two of three hours, to "take it easy." The high temperatures induced some men to strip down in the woods and remove their insulated underwear.

A bear was killed by an automobile traveling a Lycoming County highway on the first day of buck season, only two days after the season for bruins closed. Bear damage complaints were received by Game Commission authorities the same day.

NAB VIOLATORS

A 16-year-old Kingston, Pa., boy was understandably excited after bagging a four-point albino buck —his first deer—in Luzerne County on December 5.

Four Philadelphia nimrods whose hunting license suspensions were still in effect traveled to Lycoming and Tioga Counties for the Pennsylvania buck season, hoping the law would not catch up with them so far from home base.

But distance proved to be no safeguard. Game Protector Keith Hinman ruined their outing. After he corralled and prosecuted the foursome in Tioga County, on December 5, the record showed: Two of the men had illegally obtained a hunting license by giving fictitious names and addresses. One had borrowed a cousin's hunting license. The fourth man was found to be a persistent offender, this being his fourth known violation of the game law.

Hunt Antlerless Deer Saturday

The game law provides that during Pennsylvania's 1960 antlerless deer season, 7 a.m. to 5 p.m. Saturday only: Any person who has not killed a deer this year and who owns the required antlerless deer license may legally hunt this particular big game animal. But he must seek an antlerless deer in the county for which the license was issued.

All hunters must own and properly display an antlerless deer license, as well as the "regular" hunting license, on December 17 with this exception: Farm occupants may hunt such deer on that date without a license, but to do so they must hunt either on lands upon which they reside or on those immediately adjacent after the owner or lessee has given written consent.

License holders who bag an antlerless deer are required to fill out and submit a big game kill report—preferably on the card that accompanies the hunting license. Persons who legally hunt without license and kill an antlerless deer are requested to make the same kind of report to the Game Commission at Harrisburg. In any case, it is recommended that the kill report be made immediately.

KENTUCKY IS WINNER OVER UNBEATEN NCS

By BEN OLAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

Kentucky is no longer the college basketball power it was in the good old days, but the Wildcats can still pull one out of the bag once in a while.

They did Tuesday night, turning back favored, previously unbeaten and fifth-ranked North Carolina 70-65. Trailing 27-26 at halftime, the Wildcats roared back in the second half behind the slick shooting of Ned Jennings and Bill Lickert.

It had to be a good night for at least one other Kentucky school because Louisville and Western Kentucky were matched in the finals of the Bluegrass Tournament, the first major tourney of the season. Ninth-ranked Louisville won 86-71 to lift its record to 7-0. Utah State settled for third place by downing Georgia Tech 67-62.

MOUNTAINEERS WIN

Cincinnati showed it can win without Oscar Robertson, while West Virginia did the same without Jerry West. Both All-Americas were lost through graduation. The Bearcats beat Loyola of Los Angeles 74-53, and West Virginia nipped Richmond 75-72. Cincinnati has won four games and lost one, while the Mountaineers are 3-2.

Kentucky's fine free-throw shooting was the difference against North Carolina. The Wildcats hit 28 of 34 and had a stretch of 18 straight in the second half until they missed one. Jennings scored 19 points. Larry Pursiful had 17, including 11 of 11 from the free-throw line, while Lickert had 16, including a second half basket that sent Kentucky in front to stay.

In other games, VMI's Keydets, led by Norm Halberstadt's 27 points, whipped Virginia for the first time since 1943. The score was 75-63. Marquette overcame an early 17-point deficit to turn back Wichita's Shockers 83-79.

5TH IN ROW

Oklahoma City posted its fifth triumph in a row, 68-54 over Baylor. Tulsa downed Arkansas 64-59 and Jerry Graves had 28 points to lead Mississippi State to a 98-75 triumph over Spring Hill of Mobile, Ala.

Jack Egan poured in 23 points and grabbed 19 rebounds to spark St. Joseph's of Philadelphia to a 72-49 victory over West Chester State College. St. Joseph's jumped off to a 15-2 lead after six minutes and had an easy time of it thereafter. Dick Taylor picked up 22 points for West Chester, 18 in the first half.

Villanova snapped its two-game losing streak by handing Princeton its first defeat this year, 75-46. The Wildcats showed a 56.1 field goal shooting percentage. Four Villanova players hit double figures with Hubie White getting 22. Princeton Capt. Don Swan collected 13 points. He was high for the Tigers.

FRANKIE CARBO SUMMONED IN BOXING PROBE

By G. MILTON KELLY

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate boxing probers called mobster Frankie Carbo from his prison cell for questioning today about his role as an underworld czar of professional boxing.

Carbo, a survivor of old gang wars, is serving a two-year sentence in New York on state charges of illegal undercover manipulations in bigtime prizefights.

The Senate Antitrust and Monopoly subcommittee reversed itself and decided to call him, after hearing testimony that Carbo for years seemingly held vast power to make or break a boxer or manager through his influence.

He was named as close to the top officials of International Boxing Clubs, which were broken up by the courts as a monopolistic group controlling the staging of championship bouts.

IN GANG WARS

Carbo, known to the underworld as "Mr. Gray" and as "The Southern Salesman," was involved in gang wars in which onetime beer baron Waxey Gordon and West Coast gangster Bugsy Siegel were figures.

This is the last scheduled day of this phase of hearings in which the subcommittee is exploring the extent of gangster influence in boxing.

In testimony Tuesday, Charles (Sonny) Liston, the top contender for Floyd Patterson's crown, swore that if underworld figures are cutting in on his ring earnings, he never knew it. He said he'd get rid of them if he ever finds they do.

UNAWARE OF HOODLUMS

Liston, who has a spectacular 30 wins, one loss boxing record and a long record of arrests in St. Louis, insisted he was unaware that either Frank (Blinky) Palermo of Philadelphia or John J. Vitale, a St. Louis hoodlum, have acted as his undercover managers.

Liston said his first information that they might have cut themselves in on his earnings came from testimony in the hearings.

Quebec Aces In Three-Way Tie

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Quebec Aces, the last-place club in the American Hockey League last year, are in a three-way tie for third today. But close inspection shows the Aces are not holding such a hot hand.

The Aces have played four more games than Buffalo and Hershey with whom they are deadlocked. That means that the Bisons and bears can pick up an many as eight points while the Aces stand still.

Quebec moved up from fifth place Tuesday night by downing the pace-setting Springfield Indian 4-2 in the only game. Michel Harvey scored twice for the winners with Michel Labadie and Garry Collins netting the other two. Springfield scorers were Bill Sweeney, the circuit's top point-maker, and Bruce Cline.

Quebec outscored the Indians 2-1 in the first and third periods.

PATTERSON, NED BROWN WIN RING AWARDS

NEW YORK (AP) — World heavyweight boxing champion Floyd Patterson and veteran sports writer Ned Brown are the winners of two of boxing's most important rewards.

Patterson, first man to regain the heavyweight title when he knocked out Ingemar Johansson last June 20, was awarded the Edward J. Neil Memorial Plaque as Fighter of the Year by the Boxing Writers Association.

Patterson became the second two-time winner of the Neil award, named in memory of the former Associated Press sports writer who was killed in 1938 while covering the Spanish Civil War. Patterson won it first in 1956, the year he won the title the first time at the age of 21.

Brown, about 78, is employed by the North American News Alliance. He was boxing writer for the New York World from 1903 to 1931. A former president of the Writers' Association, he handled publicity for some recent important title fights and did public relations work for Jack Dempsey. Brown won the James J. Walker award for "long and meritorious service to boxing."

PENN STATE TO EXPECT VARIED BOWL ATTACK

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. (AP) — Coach Rip Engle of Penn State said today that the offensive attack of Oregon, the Nittany Lions' opponent in Philadelphia's Liberty Bowl Saturday, will be the most varied his club has faced all year.

"They use the T-Formation with an unbalanced line," Engle said. "They use wide flankers and do certain things from this formation very well."

Penn State finished the season with a 6-3 mark and played such formidable opponents as Army, Syracuse, Missouri and Pitt. Oregon had a 7-2-1 record.

INSTALLING NEW PLAYS

Engle said Oregon throughout the season had been installing new plays in its offense for each game and undoubtedly would come up with something fresh for the clash in Philadelphia Stadium.

"We do it for every game, too," the Penn State coach added.

Penn State and Oregon had exchanged films of games.

Engle said the last few practice sessions have not been very encouraging because of heavy snows and cold weather. Twelve inches of snow forced the Nittany Lions indoors Monday. They worked outdoors Tuesday for about two hours—mostly on defense—despite temperatures in the teens and gusty winds.

LEAVE THURSDAY

Engle planned outdoor practice today and Thursday. After Thursday's practice the team will leave for Philadelphia, arriving Thursday night.

Penn State will hold a light tune-up drill in Philadelphia Stadium Friday afternoon.

Oregon was due to arrive in Philadelphia today. Coach Lee Casanova planned an indoors workout for this afternoon.

Meanwhile, officials in Philadelphia reported they would hire 100 temporary workers, a bulldozer and a snow-blower to clear the municipally owned stadium which was blanketed by a heavy snow that fell this week.

The field itself had been covered by a tarpaulin. Some five feet of snow covered the tarpaulin.

Robert W. Crawford, Philadelphia recreation commissioner, said after an inspection Tuesday that he looked under a portion of the tarpaulin and the field is in good shape.

Crawford said the city had attempted to cancel the contract for the game or at least get a postporement. But both suggestions were rejected by Bud Dudley, the Liberty Bowl president.

The Weather Bureau reported there would be no more snow this week and a warming trend would prevail in Philadelphia. The city had been in the grip of a cold spell with the low dropping to a record 8 degrees Tuesday.

PUBLIC ASKED TO PARTICIPATE IN CENTENNIAL OF CIVIL WAR

WASHINGTON, D. C. — The White House today issued an invitation to all the people of the nation to take a direct and active part in the Civil War Centennial that will open formally on January 8 and continue for five years.

By proclamation, President Eisenhower requested all units and agencies of the government—federal, state and local—"to encourage, foster and participate in centennial observances."

The President's invitation was issued on the very day he was visited by the 25-member National Centennial Commission, of which, he has served as honorary chairman since its formation by Act of Congress in December, 1957.

In the President's message, schools and colleges, libraries and museums, churches and religious groups, civic, service and patriotic organizations, learned professional societies, arts, sciences and industries, and all informational media were urged to plan and carry out their own appropriate centennial observances during the years 1961-65.

"TRAGIC EXPERIENCE"

The President's proclamation termed the Civil War "America's most tragic experience." "But like all truly great tragedies," the President added, "it carries with it an enduring lesson and a profound inspiration. It was a demonstration of heroism and sacrifice by men and women of both sides, who valued principle above life itself and whose devotion to duty is a proud part of our national inheritance."

"LASTING TESTIMONIAL"

He recalled that both the North and South "sent into their armies men who became soldiers as good as any who ever fought under any flag." Military history, he said, records nothing finer than the courage and spirit displayed at such battles as Chickamauga, Antietam, Kenesaw Mountain and Gettysburg. That America could produce men so valiant and so enduring is a matter for deep and abiding pride.

This same spirit on the part of the people back home, he pointed out, supported those soldiers through four years of great trial.

"That a nation which contained hardly more than 30 million people, north and south together, could sustain 600,000 deaths without faltering," he concluded, "is a lasting testimonial to something unconquerable in the American spirit. And that a transcending sense of unity and larger common purpose could, in the end, cause the men and women who had suffered so greatly to close ranks once the contest ended and to go on together to build a greater, freer and happier America must be a source of inspiration as long as our country may last."

The sculptor of the recumbent marble statues of King Ferdinand and Queen Isabella in the Cathedral of Granada in Spain had a subtle way of showing that the queen was the more intelligent. There is a deeper depression in the pillow on which her head rests, indicating a greater brain.

WILL EXPECT STATE RELIEF FUNDS QUICKLY

HARRISBURG (AP) — Republicans and Democrats predicted today the 1961 Legislature will act swiftly in approving funds to carry on Pennsylvania's industrial development program.

In separate interviews, spokesmen for both parties said they saw little prospect of a drawn-out battle developing over appropriation requests from the Lawrence administration.

Just what the administration will ask for still is uncertain, David Baldwin, budget secretary, said.

EXTREMELY SERIOUS

"The situation of Pennsylvania's unemployment is extremely serious and I am certain Republicans will lend their wholehearted support to efforts to alleviate the problem," Sen. George B. Stevenson, R-Clinton, said.

Like other Republicans who spoke out, Stevenson comes from an area where unemployment is a major problem.

Sen. William Z. Scott, R-Carbon, said he thought the GOP would go along with whatever money request the administration makes "providing it isn't entirely out of reason," he continued.

ACCEPT JUDGMENT

"I, for one, will be willing to accept the judgment of Bill Davlin as to the funds he feels are needed."

He referred to Commerce Secretary William R. Davlin under whose department the Pennsylvania Industrial Development Authority functions.

"I intend to go right down the line in supporting this program, as I always have," said Sen. Harold E. Flack, R-Luzerne, adding:

TO DO EVERYTHING

"We are obligated to do everything we can without relying on the federal government."

Flack and Scott helped sponsor legislation which set up PIDA in 1955. The bill was sponsored by the administration of former Gov. George M. Leader.

Rep. Stephen McCann, who is expected to be named House Democratic floor leader in the next session, said he had sounded out Republicans and found that "they are ready to support us 100 per cent."

The optimistic predictions underlined the concern that state leaders have shown over the states unemployment problem which now is more severe than at any time since the 1958 recession.

JOBLESS INCREASED

The Department of Labor and Industry reported Monday that the state's jobless total soared to 381,000, an increase of 35,000 from mid-October to mid-November.

Industrial development appropriations sought in the 1957 legsilature by Leader and in the 1959 Assembly by Gov. Lawrence triggered hassles between the two parties.

In 1957, Republicans trimmed Leader's request from $5 million to $3 million after a bitter, prolonged hassle. In 1959, Lawrence's request was cut from $10 million to $8.8 million but the battle was not as heated as the one two years before.

Raymond E. Carroll, 20, of Fort Lauderdale, died about nine hours after the accident in Jannette Hospital.

Archie R. Carroll, 47, was hospitalized with back injuries.

State police said the younger Carroll had stopped his auto along the highway and had gotten out to check a tire chain. The truck hit him and the car.

NEW YORKERS BECOME HUMAN IN SNOWFALLS

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—It takes a blizzard to melt the cold, cold heart of the world's greatest city.

So, if you want to see America's leading metropolis at its friendliest, be sure to come here during a blinding snowstorm.

A human thaw occurs that turns sprawling Gotham into a small town of some eight million neighbors.

CIVIC MADHOUSE

A 17-inch snowfall here this week proved that again. A big storm always does.

On ordinary days a stranger seeing Manhattan for the first time gets the eerie impression he has been set down in a vast civic madhouse.

Everybody seems to be in a tremendous rush to get from where he is to where he isn't. Each person acts as if he were carrying an important message to Garcia. Each person appears to believe the other eight million citizens is trying to block his path.

AWED BY PACE

It is a city where folks don't really seem to have time for each other. It is a city where you start mumbling "G'bye" before you finish saying "H'lo."

To many visitors, awed by the pace here, New York appears less a city than a huge traffic problem—an intricate maze endlessly threaded by two-legged ants hopped up by pep pills, ants endlessly bumping into each other, ricocheting, and then bumbling on, growling.

But let five or more inches of snow fall, and all this magically changes.

SUBWAY STARE GOES

The daily scramble to gain an edge on the other fellow is forgotten. The subway stare—that self-protective look of indifference—disappears.

The city becomes a common white battleground on which the community forges a fresh unity.

Gallantry emerges. Men cheerfully break paths through the deepening snow, and old ladies follow in their footsteps. The bus driver no longer shuts his door in the face of a passenger. He even stops his bus in the middle of the block to pick up a red-faced, panting pilgrim of the drifts.

TEMPERS VANISH

Ill-temper vanishes. Good nature reigns. An almost frolic atmosphere takes over. People share cabs who never shared cabs before. Strangers grin and speak to each other. Everybody suddenly has time to be helpful.

It might make the big city a better place to live in if it were hit with a real blizzard at least once a month throughout the year—just so it could show its real human heart more often.

Primitive Guajiro Indians in Venezuela are romads who hunt with bow and arrow. They live on goat, sheep and pig. Small game, wild seeds and pulp and fruit of thorny plants supplement their diet.

FARM GROUP IS CRITICAL OF LABOR UNIONS

By OVID A. MARTIN

DENVER, Colo. (AP) — The American Farm Bureau Federation convention struck Tuesday at what it called monopolistic practices of organized labor and criticized moves of some unions to organize farmers.

Federation President Charles B. Shuman told the annual farm meeting that much of the unemployment in the country's steel industry could be attributed to unjustified wage increases that have helped to price steel out of its markets, he said.

Resolutions to be submitted to the convention later this week hit at recent efforts on West Coast and in some sections of the Northeast to unionize farmers and farm laborers.

RESULT IN ACTION

"The concentration of economic power in labor unions permits resort," the resolutions stated, "to measures which, if used by any other economic group, would result in drastic antitrust action."

Several members of the Resolutions Committee predicted the day will come—and perhaps soon — when organized agriculture's biggest battle will be to head off unionization efforts in the farm field.

"The methods and procedures authorized for labor unions are unworkable when applied to the marketing and pricing of farm products," the resolutions said.

FOUR RESOLUTIONS

As to farm policy, the resolutions stuck pretty closely to those adopted a year ago. They call for a minimum of government intervention in agriculture—or a rejection of farm programs advanced by President-elect John F. Kennedy.

The Kennedy program — which Shuman predicted Congress will reject—would impose rigid production and supply controls on farm products and raise price supports as major devices for eliminating troublesome farm surpluses and raising farm income, he said.

Swiss Official Is Nabbed For Thefts

BERN, Switzerland (AP)—The government has announced arrest of a retired Defense Ministry employe charged with stealing secret files, using the information to invent a new type of gunpowder and then trying to sell the formula to private industry.

Alois Dittli, 68, a mathematics instructor, took the files three years ago when he retired from his job as chief technical clerk, the government said. The announcement said he tried several inventions before joining the supply office in 1944. The nature of the inventions were not disclosed.

CHILDREN DIE IN HOME FIRE

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Three children died and two of their brothers were critically burned in a fire that wrecked their North Philadelphia home.

The mother of the youngsters, returning from a nearby store Monday, had to be restrained by neighbors and firemen from trying a rescue effort. She was treated for severe shock in Temple University Hospital where the injured children were taken.

Killed were Ellen Sherocski, 4, and her brothers, George, 2, and William, 1.

RESCUED BY NEIGHBORS

Confined to the hospital in fair condition were Charles, 5, and six-month-old Fred. Neighbors had rescued them.

Another brother, Edward Jr., 7, was unhurt. He was outside playing in the snow when the blaze was discovered in a second floor bedroom. It quickly spread through the house.

Cause of the fire was undetermined.

The father, Edward Sherocski, is a truck driver. He was at work.

The flames ate through the wall of the adjoining row house forcing Mrs. Priscilla Schad to flee with her children, Kathe, 4; Maryann, 3, and Priscilla, 1.

SAYS FINANCE PLAN MAY GAIN IN MORE AREAS

NEW YORK (AP) — A Wilkes-Barre, Pa., business executive said Monday night that "depressed areas will follow the parade of states like Pennsylvania and create 100 per cent plans to assist companies that need to relocate.

Frank L. Willis, treasurer of Eberhard Faber Inc., told the opening session of the Industrial Building Congress that the Pennsylvania Industrial Development Authority already has put over 140 relocation loans into effect. He described the plan as the largest of the state-assisted programs.

LARGEST OF ALL

Wills said that only Maine, Rhode Island, New Hampshire, Arkansas and Pennsylvania have state-assisted plans up to 100 per cent.

"The Pennsylvania Industrial Development Authority is the largest of all," he added, "and now has a revolving fund of some $20 million. They have put over 140 loans into effect with a total of $55 million."

Willis said that "assistance state authorities or municipal community private corporations is going to grow. It is inevitable when areas awaken to the tremendous advantages they create by increasing payroll and by promoting new prosperity.

HAVE GOOD FINANCES

"They will develop more of the 100 per cent plans, private community industrial development commissions and state plans."

Before officials can hope to take advantage of these plans, Willis warned, they must be certain their own finances are in good shape.

CLEAR BLOCKED RAIL

WARNERS, N.Y. (AP)—Wreck crews have cleared one track of the New York Central main line —blocked by a freight derailment —and expected to have the second track opened in 24 hours.

Twenty-eight cars of an 88-car freight rumbled off the track Monday afternoon near this community west of Syracuse. No one was injured. The freight was bound from Chicago to Boston.

Central officials said traffic in both directions would be handled over the eastbound track.

SPENDING FOR U.S. SCHOOLS IS UP 8 PCT.

By G. K. HODENFIELD
AP Education Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — The nation's public elementary and secondary schools will spend an estimated total of $16,476,135,000 this school year—more than $91 for every man, woman and child in the United States.

Reporting this today, the National Education Association said it represents an increase of $1.2 billion, or eight per cent, over last year, and 153 per cent over the $6.5 billion dollars of just 10 years ago.

The total includes almost $13 billion in current expenses, slightly over $3 billion in capital outlay for new buildings etc., and almost half a billion in interest charges.

MILLION MORE PUPILS

The NEA also reported current enrollment in the public schools has reached 37,244,284, including 25,265,620 pupils in elementary school and 11,978,664 in secondary school, a one-year over-all increase of 1,206,347.

Elementary school enrollment this year is 3 per cent higher than last year and 33 per cent higher than 10 years ago. Secondary enrollment is up 4.2 per cent over last year and a whopping 76.6 per cent higher than the 1950-51 figure.

The figures were reported by the NEA's research division in a 32-page booklet, "Estimates of School Statistics, 1960-61." Other highlights from the report:

AVERAGE SALARY UP

There are 1,408,962 classroom teachers; their average annual salary is $5,125 compared with $4,495 the previous year; one out of every 15 is an "emergency" teacher who lacks full credentials; and during the present school year 126,665 teachers will leave the public schools.

Total revenue receipts of the schools—excluding nearly $3 billion from the sale of bonds—will be $14,778,972,000. Of the total, 56.3 per cent will come from local sources, 40.1 per cent from state sources, and 3.6 per cent from the federal government.

The number of school districts has been cut to a modern low of 37,153, less than half the number in existence 11 years ago.

Sam M. Lambert, director of the NEA's research division, said total expenditures will increase by at least $1 billion per year during the 60s.

Lambert also said that while the average teacher's salary passed $5,000 this year for the first time, it is still far below what a professional should be paid.

BERN, Switzerland (AP)—The Swiss Defense Ministry announced Tuesday the arrest of Alois Dittli, a former employe of the Central War Material Supply Office, on charges of espionage for a foreign power.

SANTA and the BOY FISH by Lucrece Hudgins Beale

SYNOPSIS: Michael and Costenbricker have flown from Santa Land in the old man's parasol to find the black pearl at the bottom of the sea. Their strange aircraft is buffeted by a storm. When finally the weather clears, Michael finds that his diving mask, flippers and lung have been lost overboard!

Chapter Nine

BACK INTO THE STORM

It was true. The precious gifts from Santa had hurtled out of the parasol along with the pillows and comforter and bananas. There was nothing to do except go back into the storm cloud and come to earth where they could search for the missing mask and lung and flippers.

Costenbricker turned the parasol about and guided it back into the gales they had just escaped. Again the angry winds lifted the parasol and flipped it over and over and hurled it across the clouds like a car on a roller coaster. The few remaining magic words Costenbricker could remember now flew from his head and he could say nothing that wou make the rollicking parasol do his bidding.

They were swept finally to what was surely the very top of the sky when suddenly the polka dot silk turned inside out and the parasol shot toward the ground with Michael and Costenbricker hanging to the handle.

Down, down, down they plummeted, faster and faster. It seemed that they would certainly smash into the ground. But as they fell through the clouds the storm grew less fierce until finally it was over. The polka dot silk opened up again and parachuted gently to earth.

They were on an island in a blue green sea. The air was warm and soft breezes blew. The sun danced on the surface of the water as if there had never been a storm in the world.

Costenbricker collapsed on the ground. "Never will I leave the earth again!" he cried. "I'm too old for that kind of thing!"

But Michael was already on his feet and running toward the beach. While the parasol was drifting near to the earth he had seen—though he could hardly believe it—his lung floating on the sea.

There was a small boat pulled up on the beach. Michael dragged it to the water and rowed out to retrieve his lung. The face mask was fastened to the lung and only the flippers were missing.

Costenbricker called from shore and waved his feet frantically over his head. But when Michael rowed to the beach he saw it wasn't Down, down, down the plummeted, faster and faster.

Costenbricker's feet but his own flippers dnagling from the old man's hands.

"I found them not five yards from where we landed! And guess what my boy?" Costenbricker threw down the flippers and dragged the crumpled map from his pocket. "We've reached our destination! This is the spot—the very island we were headed for. How is that for luck"

Michael wondered if it really were luck or if Santa Claus, far away in Santa Land, was not helping them in some mysterious way. Why else would they have been caught in the storm that caused them to land in just the right spot? And why else would there have been a row boat sitting so conveniently on the beach

Costenbricker, forgetting his vow never to leave land again, scrambled into the boat and ordered Michael to put to sea. Happily Michael bent to the oars and rowed with all his might. The sea was dotted with islands, large and small, and it was somewhere among them, said Costenbricker, that the sunken ship lay.

"We'll have to hunt a bit before we find her," he said. "But she's in these waters for sure."

"May I go now?" asked Michael impatiently. "Not yet," said Costenbricker, scanning the water. Every few minutes Michael would ask again. "Now?" But Costenbricker kept shaking his head, "Wait."

On and on they rowed in widening circles until the old man, peering over the side of the boat, finally exclaimed, "Now!"

Quickly Michael fitted the flippers on his feet. He fastened the lung to his shoulders and connected it to the diving mask on his face. Then, with a wave of his hand, he slipped over the side and into the sea.

20 LOSE LIVES DURING STORM IN NEW JERSEY

NEWARK, N. J. (AP) — New Jersey's efforts to fight its way out of a record autumn snow fall were hampered Tuesday by deep drifts, icy winds and below-freezing temperatures.

The 27-hour storm that swept over the Garden State Sunday and Monday left 20.4 inches of snow in the northern part of the state. It was the third deepest storm in the state's history and the worst because it came early and without warning.

Twenty deaths were attributed to the storm in New Jersey.

The temperature never rose above freezing in New Jersey from the time the storm began Sunday. The Newark Weather Bureau Tuesday reported an overnight low of 8 degrees here, beating the old mark of 14 for the date set in 1933.

GUSTY WINDS

Gusty winds of 20 to 30 miles per hour made life miserable for pedestrians.

The airports — first to suffer from the storm—remained closed in today by treacherous snow drifts along the runways.

Newark and Teterboro Airport officials expressed the hope that plows would be able to clear part of their landing fields sometime today.

The Garden State Parkway and New Jersey Turnpike maintained maximum speed limits of 35 miles an hour and traffic on both superhighways was described as treacherous.

HAMPER BUS SERVICE

Bus service was expected to be an improvement over Monday—when it was practically nonexistent—but far slower and scarcer than normal.

Taking a train was an adventure. The Pennsylvania, Erie-Lackawanna and Jersey Central railroads slapped together strings of cars and crews wherever available and put them on the road as soon as tracks could be cleared and switches could be de-iced.

The Jersey Central cancelled 18 of its main line and sea shore trains today.

Most schools in the state remained closed today, but administrators in some areas said they might try to open on a curtailed basis.

FACTORIES ARE CLOSED

Factories in rural and suburban areas were also expected to remain shut. The New York Shipbuilding Corp. in Camden announced it would remain closed today but would open Wednesday.

Southern New Jersey reported a fall of 14 inches, less than the north, but enough to cripple the area.

Camden County was declared in a state of emergency. No trains or buses moved through Atlantic, Cape May, Cumberland, Salem or Gloucester counties. Schools and offices were closed.

BLAME BLAST ON FANATIC

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP)—A fanatic was blamed today for an explosion which blasted the side of a large Negro elementary school and damaged a dozen homes in Atlanta's northwest section.

"It was the work of a fanatic, of that we are sure," said Police Capt. R. E. Little, head of a special subversive section in the Detective Bureau.

All available men in the Police Department were taking part in the intensive investigation. FBI agents and a demolition team from the 3rd Army entered the case on a cooperative basis.

Investigators were still trying to learn the type of explosive used. Particles picked up at the scene were being tested in FBI laboratories and at the 3rd Army's nearby Ft. McPherson.

The blast damaged the school auditorium and two classrooms and showered neighboring Negro homes and parked cars with flying stone and debris. Dr. John Letson, city school superintendent, estimated it would cost between $1,000 and $1,500 to repair the school.

The school explosion took place the day after massive Negro prayer meetings and a downtown march protesting segregated lunch counters in the downtown area.

Fly To Brussels For King's Wedding

BRUSSELS, Belgium (AP) — U. S. Secretary of State Christian A. Herter flew into Brussels Tuesday to represent President Eisenhower at the pre-wedding ceremonies of King Baudouin.

The king, 30, weds Dona Fabiola de Mora y Aragon of Spain Thursday.

The secretary will leave the Belgian capital today to attend the North Atlantic Treaty Organization ministers meeting in Paris.

Herter's plane was delayed more than 12 hours in leaving Washington because of a snowstorm.

When the secretary moves on to Paris, he will leave Wiley Buchanan, State Department protocol officer, in Brussels as Eisenhower's personal representative at the wedding.

Another Tactical Missile Launched

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) —The Army has scored a second straight launch success with a two-stage model of its Pershing tactical missile.

The 34-foot solid-fuel rocket roared away from this test center Monday and propelled a simulated warhead about 140 miles down range. Brig. Gen. Richard M. Hurst, commander of the Army Ballistic Missile Agency, termed the flight a complete success.

The Army and the Martin Co. are developing the missile as a mobile field weapon with a nuclear range of 50 to 700 miles

COURT TESTS BY GOP LOST IN TWO STATES

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Republicans have lost court tests in their attempts to overturn President-elect John F. Kennedy's winning margins in Illinois and Texas. At the same time official returns from all but three states cut still further Kennedy's popular vote edge over Vice President Richard M. Nixon.

New York's official canvass Monday sliced 20,869 votes from the Kennedy total compiled unofficially right after the Nov. 8 election That gave Kennedy a nationwide popular vote margin over Nixon of 114,859, out of more than 68 million votes cast. The margin has not been that low since early in the vote counting on election night.

Only Illinois, Massachusetts and Rhode Island have not yet reported official vote counts. As they stand now, the popular vote totals are Kennedy 34,220,364 and Nixon 34,105,505. Kennedy still is credited with 300 electoral votes, however, 31 more than the 269 minimum needed to win.

GOING FOR BYRD

In another development, unpledged electors from Mississippi and Alabama met in Jackson, Miss., and said they would vote for Sen. Harry F. Byrd (D-Va.) for president. They urged other Southern states to join their cause, hoping to throw the election into the House of Representatives. It is considered very unlikely that this will happen.

There was no immediate comment from Byrd, who supported neither presidential candidate in the campaign.

The eight unpledged electors from Mississippi and the six from Alabama have not been counted either way in determining Kennedy's electoral vote total of 300.

NO JURISDICTION

In Texas, which has 24 electoral votes, U. S. Dist. Court Judge Ben C. Connally ruled that his court had no jurisdiction to rule on the Republican challenge of the election result. He also said there was no proof that anyone's rights had been violated when thousands of Texas ballots were voided for technical reasons.

In Illinois, with 27 electoral votes, State Circuit Judge Thomas E. Kluczynski dismissed two suits by Republicans against the Democratic-dominated Cook County and Chicago Election Boards. They demanded that official canvass results be altered in favor of Nixon.

The National Electoral College will go through its traditional ceremony of electing the president on Dec. 19, less than a week from now. Once that occurs, Kennedy's election will be official.

Western Europe Likes Appointees

LONDON (AP) — Western Europe today welcomed the choice of Dean Rusk as the new Kennedy administration's secretary of State.

In Britain, some observers viewed his appointment as indicating President-elect John F. Kennedy intends to bring U. S. foreign policy more directly under the president's personal control.

Rusk, together with his two principal aides—Adlai E. Stevenson and Chester Bowles — were hailed as a State Department team that could be counted on to pursue Western aims with dignity and resolution.

The French newspaper Combat applauded Kennedy's choice of Rusk, Bowles and Stevenson as "heralding a new leadership in American foreign policy."

A front-page editorial in the conservative London Daily Mail said the appointments "show that the most important man is going to be President Kennedy."

JERSEY TOWN WANTS LINCOLN CAR RETURNED

Officials and citizens of Jamesburg, N. J., don't want the City of Trenton monkeying around with their historic old carriage any longer.

Jamesburg, a Mercer County community north of Trenton, was appalled to discover that its beloved carriage, which twice carried Abraham Lincoln, had been remanded to the monkey house in a Trenton zoo.

Jamesburg presented the 150-year-old relic to Trenton a few years ago hoping its more prosperious neighbor would find a suitable location for it.

SEEK SUITABLE SHRINE

But Trenton didn't know what to do with it either. So into the monkey house at Cadwallader Park it went where the simians, so far, have displayed a singular lack of interest in it.

An irate Jamesburg city council went into session recently and agreed to authorize Major Malcolm Fitzpatrick to demand the return of the carriage immediately

It alos called upon the Jamesburg Junior Chamber of Commerce to lead a community campaign to find a suitable place to enshrine the carriage.

FRINGE ON TOP

The conveyance was once the pride and joy of James Buckelew, a prosperous farmer after whom the town was named in 1847. It was the fanciest carriage in town.

It was so luxurious, in fact, that when Lincoln arrived in Trenton on his way to Washington for his inaugural in 1861, Buckelew lent it to the president to ride through the Trenton streets.

Lincoln return a couple of years later and once again had the honor of riding in Buckelew's buggy.

The carriage is a four-seater, with leather upholstery and a three-inch fringe around the roof. It is still in excellent condition.

Says Ford Prexy Will Join Cabinet

DETROIT (AP) — Ford Motor Co. President Robert S. McNamara, 44, will accept the post of secretary of defense in the new national administration, the Detroit Free Press said here Tuesday.

A formal announcement of McNamara's decision is expected shortly, the Free Press said, from President-elect John F. Kennedy.

McNamara was elected president of Ford only five weeks ago.

The Free Press said that McNamara's resignation probably would result in Henry Ford II again assuming the dual responsibility of chairman of the board and president.

FIND MISSING CHILDREN IN BRIAR PATCH

CLAYTON, N.C. (AP) — Five missing children who spent the night in woods during subfreezing weather were found cold and shivering but unharmed Tuesday, huddled together under a big tree.

The State Highway Patrol said two searchers came upon the children about 8:30 a.m. They were reported in good condition but were brought here for medical examination.

An estimated 1,500 persons, aided by lights from helicopters, trooped through 80 square miles of woods most of the night.

Two searchers, Kenneth Johnson and Jack Raines, said the children were beneath a big tree in a thick patch of briars which apparently helped protect them from the bitter cold which dropped as low as 15 degrees.

LEFT SCHOOL BUS

"It's all a well-clothed man can do to survive out here tonight," Deputy Sheriff E. W. Creech of Johnston County had remarked during the hunt.

The site is a 600-acre woodland 17 miles southeast of Raleigh.

The search began late Monday night after the three girls and two boys failed to return on a school bus to the Knights of Pythias Home for children of broken homes. The home is about three-fourths of a mile from Clayton where the children attended school.

The children, who came to the home recently, are Shirley Pearson, 13, and James R. Pearson, 11, wards of the Davidson County Welfare Department: and Tula Fay Tester, 12; Nina C. Walker, 6, and Dennis Walker, 11, wards of the Caldwell County Welfare Department.

The Walker children and the Tester girl are brothers and sisters. Their mother, Mrs. Manila Walker, froze to death at Boone last Feb. 18 during a heavy snowstorm.

MOSCOW (AP)—A Soviet trade delegation left for Havana Tuesday to iron out plans for trade with Cuba in 1961, Tass reported.

Heading the delegation is Mikhail Kuzmin, vice minister of foreign trade, who has been conducting talks with Ernesto Guevara, Cuban economic chief.

UNION CHIEFS DECLARE WAR ON LABOR FOES

By HUBERT ERB

OAKLAND, Calif. (AP) — Two powerful independent labor leaders—James Hoffa of the Teamsters and Harry Bridges of the West Coast Longshoremen — declared war Monday night on what they called government attempts to plague organized labor.

They trained their verbal guns on the Landrum-Griffin labor law and the U. S. Senate Labor-Management Committee at a joint meeting of their unions' membership in Civic Auditorium.

"Hoffa and I are committed to unity and action," Bridges declared. "We can't worry about the McClellans, Kennedys, politicians and employers, we've got to fight."

SPOKE OVER TELEPHONE

Hoffa addressed the crowd of about 4,000 by telephone from Washington, D. C.

"We're in for the fight of our lives," he said. "If we don't progress at the bargaining table, if our demands for an increased share in the standard of living are not met, we'll strike."

Hoffa, under subpoena to appear before the Senate committee in Washington, has asked cancellation of Wednesday's hearing to enable him to fly here for the joint meeting. A postponement to Jan. 10 was ordered but too late for Hoffa to make the trip across the continent.

SWALLOWS BALLOON, DIES

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—A four-year-old Belmont Hills girl who swallowed a balloon Monday in her home died Monday night in a hospital after undergoing emergency surgery.

Janet Marie Frustacci was playing in the living room of her suburban home when the accident occurred. Her parents summoned Lower Merion police who rushed the child here to Lankenau Hospital.

German General Gets Top NATO Post

PARIS (AP)—Gen. Adolf Heusinger of West Germany Tuesday was named chairman of the watchdog Permanent Military Committee of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization.

He replaces Gen. B. R. P. F. Hasselmann of the Netherlands.

The Permanent Military Committee is composed of delegates named by each chief of staff of NATO military powers. The chiefs themselves sit as the full committee but normally meet only once each year.

Their delegates on the Permanent Committee provide continual military guidance to the Western Alliance.

SUBJECTED TO LESS DANGER

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP)—Air Force scientists said Monday that Discoverer XVIII satellite's nose cone was subjected to far less radiation than was that of Discoverer XVII during a similar flight through space.

The earlier satellite flew through much heavier radiation than last week's vehicle because a solar flare of near-record size occurred seven hours before the November firing, Dr. George Crawford, a nuclear physicist at the School of Aviation Medicine here, said.

The gold-plated capsule from Discoverer XVIII, which was opened Monday, did not receive enough radiation on its 48 trips around the world to register on the detectors called needle dosimeters, he said.

Detailed reports on the exact amount of radiation and its effect on seven types of human tissue, bread mold, bacterial spores, algae and other specimens in the capsule, are expected within two weeks.

The capsule was flown here from California after being recovered by an Air Force C119 over the Pacific.

PLEADS GUILTY TO DROWNING JUDGE, WIFE

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla. (AP)—Floyd A. Holzapfel, 36, an ex-convict, has pleaded guilty to the drowning of Circuit Judge Curtis E. Chillingworth and his wife, Marjorie, five years ago.

Judge Russell O. Morrow took the unusual action of hearing Holzapfel's case Monday without a jury and said he will hear additional testimony in Circuit Court on Feb. 20.

The judge warned the former college debater that he could be sentenced to death in the electric chair.

"I'm willing to stand up here and plead guilty and take my medicine," he replied.

WERE PAID $2,000

Holzapfel confessed last month that he and a Negro, George Lincoln, kidnaped the veteran Judge Chillingworth, 56, and his wife from their home and drowned them on the night of June 14, 1955.

The former Oklahoma City man, who has a record of arrests for bookmaking, armed robbery and attempted rape, said he and Lincoln were paid $2,000 for the killings by Joseph A. Peel Jr., 36, who feared Chillingworth would have him disbarred.

Peel, a former city judge, was charged as an accessory before the killings and pleaded innocent. Peel will have a hearing Thursday.

Bodies of the Chillingworths were never recovered.

JAPAN LIKES RUSK SELECTION

TOKYO (AP)—Japanese Foreign Office sources today noted the Asian links of Dean Rusk, secretary of state-designate, and the man picked for undersecretary, Chester Bowles, and suggested the appointments may mean more attention by the United States to the problems of this area.

"Both have long experience and deep understanding of the problems of Asia," said one official. "Therefore, we welcome the appointments by the new administration since they indicate the U. S. government's coming emphasis and concern over Asian problems."

Rusk's role as an assistant to John Foster Dulles in drawing up the 1951 peace treaty with Japan makes him a familiar figure among Asian policy makers.

Rusk's problems here may be eased by his personal friendship with Japanese Premier Hayato Ikeda, whom he entertained as Japanese finance minister in New York three years ago.

A Bit Of History About Early Settlers

By B. F. M. MacPHERSON

JOHNSON-VAN ARSDAL FAMILY

The genealogical and historical study of the French Huguenot and "Holland" Dutch settlers, who made up the Low Dutch Colony of the Conewago, is continued at this time.

Among the settlers, emigrating from New Jersey into what is now Adams County, Pennsylvania, were members of the Jansen (or Johnson) family. According to the Rev. Dr. Demorest there "were at Conewago, heads of families, Abraham, Andrew, and Thomas Johnson." Again referring to the Demorest notes, Abraham Van Arsdal, the son of Captain Simon Van Arsdal, who is mentioned in his father's will, married Abigail Johnson. There is no record of this marriage for only the "marriage list" of the Rev. George Brinkerhoff is still in existence but, without a doubt, one of the other Dutch Reformed ministers performed the ceremony. The Rev. Demorest, at the time he made his study of the Low Dutch Colony nearly a hundred years ago, corresponded with the descendants of many of the original settlers and thus obtained a great deal of information that it would be impossible to collect today.

There are no marked Johnson (or Jansen) graves in either of the Low Dutch Burial Grounds but members of the family may be buried in one or both of them for, as the Rev. Demorest wrote nearly a century ago, "there are many graves but few markers." It is interesting to note that although some members of the Van Arsdal and Johnson families emigrated to points south and west after the War of the American Revolution, a few Johnson descendants were living at the village of Hampton, in this County, as late as 1855.

This concludes, for the time being at least, the notes on the Van Arsdal and Johnson (or Jansen) families.

"LYDIA JANE"

Several weeks ago, in this column the grave of a little girl, located just inside the gate of the "Upper" Low Dutch Graveyard, one "Lydia Jane, daughter of J. J. and S. Baldwin, died May 3, 1855, aged 4 months and 23 days" was mentioned. In the "Adams Centinel," under the date given, is the obituary of this child, as follows:-

1. Monday, May 7, 1855 —

"Died, Thursday, May 3, 1855, Lydia Jane, daughter of J. J. Baldwin, Esq., of this place (Gettysburg, Pa.), aged 4 months and 23 days."

It is reasonable to assume that at least one other child of Jonathan Baldwin is buried in this graveyard for in the files of the old "Sentinel" is yet another "death notice" — as follows: —

1. Monday, July 21, 1856 —

"Died, July 9, 1856, in this place, Jacob Brinkerhoff Baldwin, the son of Jonathan J. and Sarah Baldwin, aged 3 months and 5 days."

The name of this little boy "Jacob Brinkerhoff" may give the clue as to "the why and therefore" of the children being being in this graveyard — Sarah Baldwin, their mother, was probably a member of the Brinkerhoff family, many of whom are buried here. Within a few weeks a genealogical study of the Brinkerhoff family will be included in this series.

BERCAW CLAN

The next family of the Low Dutch Settlement of the Conewago with a burial plot in the "Upper" Low Dutch Graveyard," is the Bercaw clan. Here there are some nine marked graves — an unusually high number for this burial ground. In addition there appear to be at least four unmarked graves — perhaps more. At this late date it is impossible to give an exact figure.

The first Bercaw grave in the Bercaw family plot is that of a soldier of the American Revolution —

1. "In Memory of Peter Bercaw, Senior, who departed this life on the 15th day of October, A. D. 1823, aged 70 years, 9 months."

Note:—Adams Centinel, Wednesday, October 22, 1823 —

"Died, October 15, 1823, Mr. Peter Bercaw, of Mountjoy Township, this County, in the 71st year of his age — an old soldier of the Revolution."

2. "In memory of Amy Bercaw, wife of Peter Bercaw, who departed this life on the 10th day of April, 1810, aged 56 years, 1 month, and 6 days."

Note:— Amy, the wife of Peter Bercaw, Senior, was, before her marriage, Amy Coshun — a member of another "Low Dutch" family. It is interesting to note that the French Huguenots and the "Holland" Dutch usually married "within the ranks" of their own people.

PETER BERCAW

In the files of the "Adams Sentinel" (later the "Star and Sentinel") the following date on the family of Peter Bercaw, Senior, can be found — under the dates given.

1. Wednesday, December 4, 1811 —

"Married, Thursday, November 28, 1811, by the Rev. David McConaughty, Mr. Isaac Bercaw, the son of Mr. Peter Bercaw, to Miss Hetty Kitchen, both of this County."

Note:—The above almost speaks for itself. Isaac Bercaw was a son of Peter Bercaw, Senior, soldier of the American Revolution, and his wife, Amy Coshun Bercaw. Nothing more is known pertaining to this branch of the family.

2. Wednesday, October 5, 1814 —

"Married, Thursday, September 29, 1814, by John Brinkerhoff, Esq., Mr. Peter Bercaw, Senior, to Miss Anne Loyster, both of Mountjoy Township, this County."

Note:— Four years after the death of his first wife, Amy Coshun, Peter Bercaw, Senior, soldier of the Revolution, married for the second time, at the age of 62 years, one Anne Loyster. The old soldier died some nine years after his second matrimonial venture.

3. Wednesday, August 20, 1817— "Died, Sunday, August 17, 1817, Mr. Peter Bercaw, Jr., of Strabane Township, this County."

Note:— A son of Peter Bercaw, Senior, soldier of the American Revolution, and his first wife, Amy Coshun, Peter Bercaw, Jr., might almost be called the "unknown" member of the family. Nothing besides the date of his death is definitely known — although he is undoubtedly buried in the family plot in an unmarked grave.

The notes on the Bercaw family will be continued in this column next week.

The POWER of FAITH

by Howard Brodie

When the bill for statehood passed, members of Alaska's delegation in Washington retired to the Senate chapel for "a prayer of Thanksgiving; a humble supplication for the successful voyage of the newly-launched ship of state."

Long before statehood was dreamed of, religious faith played its role in the Northland. In 1796 Empress Catherine of Russia, which ruled Alaska then, dispatched missionaries there. After the American purchase of the territory in 1867, a Presbyterian clergyman established the first native mission in Alaska.

Today, churches of all major denominations are found in the bigger cities, and missionary boats tie up at logging and fishing camps. Ministers cover their vast parishes by plane or dog sled. There are Indian and Eskimo preachers, and the Bible has been translated into native dialects. And 300 miles above the Arctic Circle, a native preacher conducts services.

the upper end of the county to seek to promote Civil War observances in that area.

MAJOR EVENT EACH YEAR

According to discussion Tuesday night, the county commission will seek to hold one major program each year marking the Civil War centennial, working in conjunction with other organizations. At the same time it will seek to stimulate local observances of various local Civil War activities in the various communities.

The marking of the departure of the Independent Blues was thought of as the major program for the commission in 1961. In 1962 it will seek to work with the Fairfield and Cashtown Lions in an observance of the Confederate cavalry raid which occurred in the Fairfield-Cashtown area October 11, 1862. Plans for 1963 include joining other groups in plans for marking such anniversaries as the occupation of much of the county by Confederate troops on June 25-26, 1863, including the death of George Sandoe, the first countian killed while serving as a soldier in Adams County and the organization of the college company, and during the July 1, 2, 3 period the cavalry battles in the Fairfield and Hunterstown areas, plus a special observance for Company K, Adams County's unit which fought here during the battle. The main observance of the Battle of Gettysburg anniversary will be handled by a state commission.

Events to be observed in 1964 and 1965 have not been decided upon.

MAN TRAPPED IN CISTERN IS RESCUED

HOLLY SPRINGS, Miss. (AP) —Rescue workers looped ropes around a trapped man today and pulled him free from the red, wet sand of a cistern in which he had been trapped for almost 24 hours.

Weak but calm throughtout his ordeal, Harry Miller, 44, Negro, was hauled out of the 20-foot cistern by crews who had worked since noon Tuesday to free him.

Miller, who helped direct his own rescue, was conscious and in good spirits. He was put in an ambulance and taken to a hospital.

The rescue workers, both whites and Negroes, took turns in crews of 10 descending into the treacherous sand and digging to free the trapped man.

FRAIL SHORING

Only frail, makeshift shoring which they had been able to rig during the night protected them from the crumbling walls of the cistern.

The treacherous sand buried Miller up to his chin. By dawn today, diggers had uncovered the upper part of his body. Then, ropes were looped about him and Miller was pulled free.

Holly Springs is about 45 miles southeast of Memphis, Tenn.

A tube in his mouth provided oxygen from above, where men with shovels worked cautiously in an effort to free him. Late Tuesday night they mercifully placed a barrel over his head to keep the sand from spraying his face.

At the top, Miller's five children kept vigil. One of them, Levan, about 17, fainted but was revived. He remained at the scene.

RESCUERS ALMOST HELPLESS

Hundreds of persons stood silently in the field in a remote area five miles south of here. Highway 7, which runs nearby, was lined with automobiles. A Negro woman in the crowd was heard to say: "It's the Lord's will he ought to live, the way these white folks are helping."

Rescue workers were almost helpless. They, too, risked their lives in the countless said falls that thwarted rescue efforts by men and machines.

Miller amazed workers with his calmness. Sometimes he directed them. Only a few times did he complain.

"MASHING MY BACK"

"It's mashing my back," he said, apparently in reference to the wet earth in which he was trapped. Another time he complained of the cold.

His ordeal worsened at nightfall Tuesday. Temperatures dropped into the 20s as three big bonfires lit the night. A spotlight illuminated the hole.

Earth moving equipment at the scene wasn't any more effective. Attempts to dig a side trench to the trapped man ended in more collapses.

Gradually, however, the workers shored the hole with beams.

SAYS U.S. WILL BUILD UP NON NUCLEAR FORCE

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Kennedy administration taking office next month appears certain to put heavy new emphasis on building up the capacity of the United States and its Allies to fight limited, non-nuclear war.

Both President-elect John F. Kennedy and his prospective secretary of State, Dean Rusk, are on record in favor of strengthening this capability.

The task will fall primarily into the hands of Kennedy's newly designated secretary of Defense, Robert S. McNamara. The president-elect announced here Tuesday that he had chosen the Ford Motor Co. president for this position. The announcement followed by a day his designation of Rusk for the State Department job.

VIEWS TO BE DEVELOPED

McNamara's views on specific defense policy problems and strategic needs remain to be developed. But assuming that policy making will follow the National Security Council procedure developed during the past decade, the basic decision will be made by Kennedy primarily on the advice of his secretaries of Defense and State.

The issue of capability to wage limited war had developed sharply in recent years as critics of the Eisenhower administration and the massive retaliation policy enunciated by the late Secretary of State John Foster Dulles argued that the United States was relying far too much on the power of his secretaries of defense and state.

VIEW EXPOUNDED

The views expounded by Kennedy and Rusk are in line with the contention that excessive reliance on the enormous destructive power of nuclear weapons might make the United States and its Allies unwilling in some new crisis to use force at all in defense of the free world. Such unwillingness, according to this argument, would permit Soviet or Red Chinese or Communist satellite forces to chip away at free world territory by a series of small military steps.

Weddings

Sherbine—Bohlander

Miss Lorraine S. Bohlander, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Bohlander, Holtwood R. 2, Pa., and K. Bruce Sherbine, York, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl E. Sherbine, Portage R. 2, Pa., were married in the Presbyterian Church, Gettysburg, at 2:30 p.m. Saturday afternoon with the Rev. Robert MacAskill officiating at the double-ring ceremony. The church was decorated with Christmas wreaths and laurel, candles and baskets of white chrysanthemums. Edward L. Bohlander, brother of the bride, was vocal soloist, and Miss Anita Monteith was violin soloist. Miss Lois Kadel was organist. The bride was given in marriage by her father. The matron of honor was Mrs. Janet L. Sherbine, Mercersburg, sister-in-law of the groom. Miss Joanne Gish, Holtwood; Miss Barbara Beers, Largo, Fla.; Miss Bonnie Lou Herr, Millersville; Miss Eileen Wallace, Woodbury, N. J., and Miss Mary Ellen Schmidt, Bogota, N. J., were bridesmaids. Flower girl was Margaret J. Hartzell, Gettysburg. Best man was Marlin C. Sherbine, Mercersburg, the bridegroom's brother. Ushers were Bruce Fretz, Chalfont, Pa.; David Sherbine, Portage, the bridegroom's brother; John H. Clark II, Gettysburg; Keith Quigley, Camp Hill, and Kenneth Bluett, Baltimore. A reception was held following the ceremony in the church social room with approximately 250 guests. The bride wore a plum-colored wool sheath with black accessories for her wedding trip.

Mrs. Sherbine is a 1957 graduate of Penn Manor High School, Millersville, and will graduate from Gettysburg College in January.

Mr. Sherbine graduated from Beaverdale-Wilmore High School in Beaverdale, Pa., and from Gettysburg College in 1960. He is a biology teacher at York Central High School. The couple will reside at 1770 W. Market St., York.

Wineberg—Smith

The marriage of Janet Elizabeth Smith, daughter of Mrs. H. Walter Smith, New Oxford R. 1, and the late Mr. Smith, to Max R. Wineberg Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs Max Wineberg, New Oxford R. 2, took place early this month in the Immaculate Conception Catholic Church, New Oxford. The Rev. Philip J. Gergen officiated.

The bridegroom is stationed with the armed forces in Virginia.

Watermelon Lover Dies Of Cancer

SAVANNAH, Ga. (AP) — The plucky boy with cancer whose wish for fresh watermelons touched thousands of hearts is dead.

Little Danny McDougald, 6, of Bluffton, S. C., took a turn for the worse at home Tuesday and was taken to Savannah's Memorial Hospital, where he died about an hour after arrival.

Danny had been in and out of hospitals since September when doctors discovered he had cancer of the lymph glands.

Early this month the youngster told his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel McDougald, that he would like to have some watermelon.

His request reached as far as Miami, Fla., where Mayor Robert King ordered a watermelon flown from Honduras.

TRY TO UPSET SUSPENSIONS

HARRISBURG (AP)—The State Superior Court has been asked to upset four Luzerne County decisions against motorists' license suspensions imposed by the state on out-of-state violations.

Deputy Atty. Gen. Elmer Bolla said Tuesday the cases questioned the state's right to suspend the license of a driver after he had been suspended for a violation in another state.

Bolla cited three cases where the Superior Court had upheld the right to suspend on out-of-state violation where the other state did not order a suspension.

He said there was no difference between these cases and those where the the other state does suspend, and no question of double penalty.

He pointed out that the State Motor Vehicle Code gives the secretary of revenue the power to suspend a driver's license, after a hearing, upon receipt of notice of an out-of-state conviction which would be subject to suspension in Pennsylvania.

Bolla said it did not matter if the persons had received numerous suspensions in the other state.

DIES OF INJURIES

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Injuries suffered in a two-car crash proved fatal Tuesday to Alexander H. Fasolas, 66, of Turtle Creek in Columbia Hospital. The crash occurred Sunday on Route 80 in suburban Monroeville.

WASHINGTON (AP)—Rep. John H. Dent, Pa., described Tuesday's closed door meeting of Democratic members of the House Labor Committee as an informal get together to discuss bills which will come before the committee next year. Dent, one of the first to leave the meeting, did not elaborate.
